PICK OF DEMOCRAT TO ENFORCE DRY LAW IS SLICK, WILL

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28. — Mr. Arthur Brisbane and wife were to see our show yesterday afternoon and around to the dressing room where we settled the cabinet to our satisfaction. We hope they will put a postmaster general in there that is as strong for aviation as Mr. New was.

If this Mitchell is a Democrat and if they are going to transfer prohibition enforcement over to his department, that's a pretty slick trick of appointing a Democrat to enforce it. If you got something that can't be done appoint your enemy to do it.

Everybody is wondering what Mr. Coolidge is going to do. What can he do? It will take him four years to unpack.

Yours,

PA NEW OBSERVES

The formation of the New Castle Boosters Club here is one of the most constructive moves that citizens of New Castle have made in some time and Pa News believes that it will accomplish a lot of good for the city. It is their aim and endeavor to boost New Castle in every way, shape and form and to work in harmony and conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce and the various civic associations. Nobody pays any dues, pledging only a few hours of their time each week. The club will meet again next Wednesday evening in the city council chambers, so if you be lieve in the future and welfare of New Castle, pop on the band wagon and become one of the charter members.

Old Man Winter is a die hard. Just when it looked as if spring was just around the corner, he gave another drenching and blizzard. However, Miss Spring is not due until the 1st of next month, so don't lay away your heavy coats yet.

Friday evening in the Carnegie auditorium, the Robert J. Tully trophy will be given to the Boy Scout troop winning the first aid meet. The trophy, five in a team, will be given a problem and five final doctors will judge the most efficient group.

Prior to the membership meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce, the "Castle News" will be published. This sheet is the official organ of the organization and is a four page affair.

From actual observation, the Mahoning river still seems to be the highest. The Nesquehanna and Susquehanna are less turbulent than they were, but the Mahoning at the Seventh ward bridge is still near the overflowing stage.

If you can do anything toward the movement of foot to get it better established, why do it. Imagine what New Castle would be like without a library and you can picture the farm community which does not have adequate books.

Tomorrow evening the churches, First M. E. and Mahoning M. E. will center their interest at the Y. M. C. A. V. Their bowling teams will start the combat for first honors. The teams were tied at the close of the league games which ended recently.

The sudden death of John H. Strothers, late instructor at the Senior High school known by many interested in both school and civic affairs, comes as a shock not only to the school but to the city. Mr. Strothers' death recalls the similar occurrence that saddened the high school about this time last year, the death of the late Miss Evelyn Eberly, who also was a teacher of the commercial department there.

Reports of the splendid progress of the Civic Theatre Guild, newly formed dramatic organization here, are encouraging. Young Pa News knows that a group of interested people who can do so much in such a limited space of time can surely do wonders when given more. New Castle can feel proud of this young member of its clubs roster.

Announcement that the new foundry unit which the Johnson Bros. company is adding to its present South Mill street buildings is almost completed is met with the deepest interest.

In the neighborhood of 75 serious minded young business and professional men of the city met in the city council chambers last evening, at which time the New Castle Boosters club was formed to further the various interests of the city.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted and several committees were named to begin work on immediate projects.

According to the by-laws of the organization, the club has no sex to grind, is non-partisan, non-sectarian and non-sectarian, and has only the purpose of working to make New Castle a bigger and better place in which to live.

To Aid Development.
It aims to take the initiative in encouraging present industrial and business activities, and in working to secure new industries and businesses for the city.

Any citizen of New Castle is eligible to become a member, and there are no dues to be paid. All that is necessary is to subscribe to the pledge of the club which reads as follows: "I

TWO YOUTHS TAKE PART IN LONG AVE. STORE HOLD-UP

Two young men said to be about 25 years of age, one of whom was armed with a revolver, last midnight, according to the report made to the police, entered the store of Peter Buzcek, 113 East Long avenue, held up the proprietor, took a generous supply of cigarettes and $20 from the cash register. They then went outside, entered an automobile parked in front of the store and drove east on Long avenue.

It was a few minutes past midnight when Buzcek reported the holdup to Officers Thomas and McMullen, who had just come on duty, and they made a thorough investigation, but could secure no clue as to the identity of the men or where they might have gone.

Mr. Buzcek was unable to give much of a description of the men, other than their apparent age, that they were about five feet ten inches in height and wore brown overcoats. He was unable to state whether the car turned up Long avenue or went up over the Long avenue hill.

One of the men fired a shot into the floor of the store as they entered.

ENGINEERING WORKS GETS LARGE CONTRACT FOR NEW BYERS PLANT

It was announced this afternoon by W. S. Wheeler, vice president and treasurer of the Pennsylvania Engineering Works, that the local plant had been awarded a contract for the construction of two ten ton converters and all auxiliary machinery at the new plant of the A. M. Byers Company at Ambridge.

This will mean at least three months work for the local plant on this contract and work on it will be started as soon as materials can be assembled and conditions in the construction of the Ambridge plant will permit.

The Ambridge plant, it will be remembered, will manufacture wrought iron by what is known as the Aston process, which means that the moulten cast iron will be blown in Bessemer converters and then poured into a prepared slag. This product will be the same as that now made by the old hand method of puddling, is much slower and more costlier process.

The contract means that the local plant will construct the converters, cars, cranes and all auxiliary machinery used in the operation of the converters.

Mr. Wheeler in speaking of the order, also stated that inquiries for construction work such as the Pennsylvania Engineering Works is adapted for, are very good and that there is every indication that the local plant will enjoy a good year.

Martin Farm Has Been Placed In Readiness For Their Arrival

Work on the state game propagation station, which is located near Harlansburg, is being rushed as rapidly as possible and preparations are being made to have the preserve in readiness for the mating season which will begin next month.

A consignment of 900 birds is expected to arrive in New Castle today, and the birds will be taken to the farm here where cages have been prepared for them. The birds were secured at Mansfield, Toga, county, and consist of ringneck, quail, and wild turkeys.

Prepare Farm
The house and barn on the old Martin farm have already been repaired and put in shape; one big cage has been built and posts have been set for the runways, which will be fenced in and covered with wire shortly. The work of putting the wire netting underground surrounding the cages as a protection against vermin will be undertaken as soon as the frost has left the ground.

Two state trucks will bring the consignment of birds here, one having been secured from the highway department in this district, and another having been sent out from Harrisburg.

The birds are being cared for by Jack Sines, district supervisor of the Game Commission; Ray McKisick, game warden from Westmoreland county; Ray Seagers, game warden from Beaver County; and Joseph M. Curtis, game warden from Butler county, enroute to New Castle.

Fifty birds had been received some time ago, which added to the 900 now enroute, will form a substantial stock to start with.

The birds which are hatched and reared here will be sent out to various sections of the state where the stock has been shot out.

Man Under Arrest Is Said To Be Ace Machine Gunner
Of "Scarface" Capone
Gang

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—With the arrest and identification of Jack McGurn, alleged ace machine gunner for "Scarface" Al Capone's gang, assistant State's Attorney David Stansbury stated today that the St. Valentine's day massacre of seven Moran gangsters "has been solved."

McGurn, held to be the "key" to the solution, was arrested late yesterday as he sat in his car, parked near the corner of Michigan Boulevard and Monroe street. Two automatic pistols were found on his person.

McGurn, police learned, recently visited his chief, Capone in Florida at the latter's palatial home. He was there in December, remained some time, and returned home. He was in Chicago the day of the gangland massacre, detectives stated.

"Only one gang kills like that—the Capone gang," was the first statement McGurn made when he was located after the murders. Police records indicate that McGurn and Moran were bitter enemies.

McGurn Grilled
Following a lengthy grilling of the prisoner, prosecutor Stansbury said: "There is no doubt that we have the leader of the killer band in McGurn. The prisoner has been viewed by witnesses who declare positively that he is one of the assassins."

"I also know the motive—and have known it for two days. Facts obtained since the arrest have confirmed what I already knew of the motive."

Girl Is Arrested
"McGurn, of course, will fight. He will set up an alibi, using as his witness a young woman with whom he was arrested. But the alibi will not stand. All we want now is five more men. We shall have them soon."

An attractive young blond, who gave her name as Louise Rolfe, was arrested with McGurn. Police said they learned the gangster and Miss Rolfe had been living at a prominent downtown hotel ever since the massacre.

It also became known that during the greater part of this period the police and the state's attorney maintained headquarters in the same hotel, for the examination of witnesses in the massacre investigation.

"It is a credit to the city of New Castle and a landmark in local automobile history," said the Honorable W. H. Gillespie, mayor, this afternoon shortly after two o'clock, as he congratulated A. C. McCoy, president of the New Castle Automobile Dealers Association, sponsors of the second annual and big three-day Automobile Show which was formally opened at The Cathedral today by the mayor. With the mayor were members of the dealers association, city officials, prominent men and a large group of spectators.

Real Auto Show
"Every one who has any interest in the car world, and there is no person living today who does not aspire to own an automobile, should attend this display of beautiful cars."

"It is a credit to a city many times larger than New Castle," continued Mayor Gillespie, "and I take great pleasure in the privilege of formally opening this magnificent show."

At the ceremony which formally opened the show the mayor complimented the dealers association on their efforts and success and offered the assistance of the city in any way that would be possible in order that the show might be an even greater success.

"It is a great thing—this show," said Mayor Gillespie, "and we of the city will give every possible co-operation. It is an opportunity for everyone to view the majority of the car makes at one time and it will also give one a good picture of what has occurred."

INJURED FLIER MAKES NEW FLIGHT; FIANCEE IS PASSENGER IN PLANE

Lindy and Fiancee Show To World That Mishap In Landing Yesterday Hasn't Daunted Their Airplaning Spirit —
Lindy's Arm Is Carried In Sling.

(Bulletin)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 28.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh today proved himself the "man they can't keep down" when, despite an injured shoulder and arm sustained in a landing crash yesterday, he hopped off on another flight at 10:27 o'clock, Mexico City time.

He was accompanied on this flight by his fiancee, Miss Anne Spencer Morrow, who also was his passenger yesterday when he crashed.

Flight Is Complete Surprise
The flight was a complete surprise to all, as it had been thought Lindbergh would be unable to fly for a week or two, due to the dislocated shoulder and injured right wrist which he sustained in yesterday's crash.

He had appeared at the field only a few minutes before the take-off with his right arm in a sling.

The flight lasted only about 10 minutes. After a flight which carried him over Mexico City the Lone Eagle brought the little biplane down to a perfect landing on Val-Buena field.

Lindbergh called the attention of one of the field mechanics to some slight detail of the machine.

The mechanic tinkered with the motor for a moment. Then Lindbergh turned up the motor and a moment later was away again on a second flight.

Remains in Air 10 Minutes
This time he shot the little biplane up a steep climb until he had reached considerable altitude. After remaining high up in the sky for 10 minutes he swooped like a great bird, coming almost down to the level of the field, and then climbed again, circling about the field for some time.

He landed the second time at 10:50 o'clock.

Again he brought the biplane down to a three-point landing and taxied lazily across the field.

As soon as he had brought the plane to a stop Lindy climbed out of the cockpit and then assisted Anne from the plane. They walked over to the embassy automobile and climbed into it. This time Anne took the wheel for the drive back to the embassy.

Neither of them had anything to say, but it was noticeable that she had completely regained her composure and was smiling brightly as the car started away.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 28.—Cablegrams congratulating them upon their miraculous escape from death or serious injury today poured in on Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his fiancee, Miss Anne Spencer Morrow, from prominent persons all over the world.

Many of the congratulatory messages urged the colonel to give up flying so that he would not continue to subject himself to danger in the form of unavoidable accidents similar to that which occurred yesterday, when his plane somersaulted upon landing here, owing to a missing landing wheel.

I do not care who won the fight, if Sharkey hit the hardest blow, I do not care if Stribling slipped, the thing that I would like to know is when the robins will be back, when we'll hear the linnet sing, when will the snow be gone for good, when can we welcome Mistress Spring. I do not know the month or day when Lindbergh takes his blushing bride, I do not care if baseball rooks are learning how to hit and slide, the fact that Hoover will be made the president don't move me much, we have to have a president and cabinets and such and such. What I would like to know my friend is when the wheat will start to grow, when will the spuds be blooming out, when will we bid goodbye to snow. Fire Destroys Unoccupied Home Near Paper Mill

Serious Loss Also Sustained In Union Township Fire
Early Today

New Castle firemen were called upon to battle two blazes on the outskirts of the city during the night, both of a serious character.

At 2:45 this morning Assistant Chief Craig and the fourth ward truck answered a still alarm, calling them to Smith street, near Hill's burning branch at the Paper Mill, where fire destroyed an unoccupied dwelling owned by Henry Craven with a loss of approximately $2,000. The call was sent in by L. E. Hough, who resides nearby.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but may have been started by men who entered the house to spend the night.

The fire had made considerable headway when the department arrived on the scene, but by the judicious use of the big chemical tank on the truck, they were able to prevent the blaze from spreading to the home of Mrs. Hattie Audin, next door. The firemen stayed on the scene until the Craven house had burned completely out and it was safe to leave.

Fire in Union Township.

At 5:15 this morning the sixth ward department and Assistant Chief Craig answered a call to No. 8 Fern street, in the Oakland district in Union township, where an overheated furnace had set fire to the home of George Kulez. Although the house is situated beyond the fire protection limits, the firemen were able to bring it under control with chemicals and when the chemicals played out they formed a bucket brigade and by good work finally extinguished the blaze. The kitchen of the home was badly damaged. The loss was approximately $550.

Members of the Kulez home were able to make their way from the burning structure in safety.

Soon the American Legion of New Castle will conduct its membership drive, the most extensive planned by it yet. Hopes are being entertained that every ex-service man in the community and outskirts, now not a legionnaire, will be enrolled. From what the Legion has accomplished in the past, and from the type of objectives that it now has placed before it, Young Pa readily sees that it is an organization worth belonging to. Workmen have started rebuilding the home of Ralph M. Campbell, on East Grant street, which was so badly damaged by fire last week.

Several thousand New Castle folks will listen in on Hoover's inaugural address next Monday. Plans are being made in some of the schools to have radio apparatus installed so that the pupils can listen in on the affair.

Earl Dufford and James Rugh, two local young men, were standing on Washington street, passing the time of day yesterday, when they were approached by a decrepit looking stranger who claimed he was hungry and wanted a nickel for a bowl of soup. After inquiring of the stranger his exact state of hunger, which the pauncher described as very acute, Rugh told him he would accompany him to a restaurant and buy him a bowl of soup. They started down the street and had gone but a short distance when the stranger halted. "Never mind about the bowl of soup now," he said. "There's a college class of mine across the street. It's my buddy, and you won't need to bother." And without further ado he walked away and crossed the street.

It probably is true that some people do not become enthralled over boxing but the same situation is true in other sports and pursuits. However, last night almost every person who owned a radio set listened to the Sharkey-Stribling boxing bout. Boxing is legalized in a majority of the states of the union.

It may not be known generally but it is true that Young Stribling appeared in a boxing bout here almost a dozen years ago. He came here with his parents and appeared in vaudeville at the Coliseum. Young Stribling then a young boy and "Eggie" Chub boxed several rounds. Stribling was acclaimed the winner.

Councilman T. J. is of the opinion that the Rosena dam must be removed and if the city does not remove it the state may ask the city to remove it and forthwith. Sometime ago the Carnegie Steel Co. gave the city permission to do so. The water and ice

Should the city remove the Hodge property it may come to pass that the actual cost of its demolition may never be known unless a check is kept on labor. Council rejected one bid. The city owns a lot where the bathhouse stood. If it could be moved up the street it might be placed on the lot then sold.

It has been several months since an automobilist appeared in council session and complained of the Avenue De Bumps, meaning no other than Wilmington avenue. Last summer Inspector Henry Dysart kept a close check on the avenue and several firms which did not replace material properly were compelled to do the work twice.

Although State street was paved for the purpose of diverting Pittsburgh traffic to Youngstown, the fact remains that Grant street is the main route of Ohio traffic to New Castle. It will be some time before Grant street is repaved as council is not figuring on the improvement this year, but it needs resurfacing.

Evidently the operators of the large trucks and busses which have been in the habit of riding the roads in the night have been taught a lesson by the Pennsylvania highway police. Many times Pa Newc has seen the trucks roar past like demons disguised. However, the state patrolmen have a neat way of curbing such tactics.

Talking of unique clocks, there is another in the city and it is located in the office of the National Radiator Company and owned by Ralph Bostinger, bowling team sponsor, motor club president and chief clerk at the radiator plant. The face of the clock is actually an old-time flying omm. It is very unique.

"Luckies have helped me win the laurel crown of my musical career—singing in opera. Stage presence demands a slim, youthful figure. Rich foods cannot tempt me. I light a Lucky and stay slender. The toasted flavor of a Lucky soothes the craving for goodies. Then, too, a Lucky never irritates my throat. Even, after smoking many, my voice is still clear."

The modern common sense way—reach for a Lucky instead of a fattening sweet. Everyone is doing it—men keep healthy and fit, women retain a trim figure. Lucky Strike, the finest tobaccos, skilfully blended, then toasted to develop a flavor which is a delightful alternative for that craving for fattening sweets.

Toasting frees Lucky Strike from impurities. 20,679 physicians recognize this when they say Luckies are less irritating than other cigarettes. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

SOCIAL GATHERINGS INTEREST THIRD CHURCH

Congregational socials which were begun last Thursday evening by the Third U. P. congregation are proving to be very delightful social affairs. The congregation is divided into 16 sections with a church officer over each section. Committees are appointed for each section so that those entertaining have nothing to do except to open their home for the evening.

Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week have been set aside for these social gatherings. The size of the congregation makes it impossible for the pastor to visit in the homes of the congregation as often as he would like to do and this method is an effort to become better acquainted with the congregation.

Circulating Book Club
Fourteen members of the Circulating Book Club were present when Mrs. John Galey, North Market street, entertained in her home Wednesday afternoon. The hours were enjoyably spent with social chat and the exchange of books.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Bess Galey, and Mrs. J. Norman Martin.

Letter Carriers Banquet
Members of Branch No. 22 National Association of Letter Carriers enjoyed a banquet, and get-together meeting Tuesday evening at Danceland. The banquet was interspersed with pep singing, and the evening hours were spent with cards.

AFTERNOON "TEA" IS ATTRACTIVE EVENT

Mrs. W. Wignall was hostess to an attractively appointed afternoon "Tea" to the members of the M. C. Circle of the Third United Presbyterian church in the church parlor on Wednesday.

Tulips, carnations and potted plants formed a beautiful and colorful decoration for the event. About fifty were present including Mrs. L. Ray and daughter, Mrs. Frank Ransick, Mrs. Robert A. Young, Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Mrs. C. Miller, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Ben Lloyd who were special guests.

The hours were from 2 to 5. A pleasing program featured the afternoon. Pep singing was led by Mrs. W. D. Fullerton after which readings were given by Mrs. King and Miss Sue Platt. Mrs. Garth Kennedy gave a solo number and Mrs. A. B. Coulter a piano selection.

During the refreshment period Mrs. Wignall and Mrs. Edward Morse poured. Their aides were Mrs. D. C. Brown, Miss Sue Platt, Mrs. W. D. Fullerton, Mrs. Bova and Mrs. McKibben.

FRANCES WILLARD DAY OBSERVED AT RECEPTION

Mrs. Elmer G. Brown of Highland avenue entertained the West Side W. C. T. U. and a number of special guests at an attractively appointed reception and program in observance of Frances Willard Day at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with baskets of cut flowers and blooming plants. The hours were from 2 to 5. About sixty were present. An interesting Frances Willard program was carried out with the president of the West Side Union, Mrs. R. E. Long, presiding.

Following the singing of America with Miss Leila Allen at the piano, the devotionals were led by Mrs. P. D. Allen. The address of the afternoon was given by Miss Margaret S. Walker, president of Lawrence County W. C. T. U. who gave an excellent talk on the life of Frances Willard, telling when Miss Willard first entered the temperance world. She also spoke of the great temperance reformer, John B. Gough. Talks were also given by Mrs. J. S. Martin, Mrs. E. McCleary and Mrs. C. C. Campbell.

A solo number was given by Miss Ruth Stanley accompanied by Miss Miriam Harris, and Miss Allen played several piano selections. A group of readings by Mrs. Ralph Cooper were much enjoyed. Mrs. Mary Tidball who is 91 years old was the oldest lady present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses consisting of Mrs. J. Y. Patton, Mrs. C. N. Lockhart, Mrs. S. E. McCleary, Mrs. Fred Lockhart and Mrs. E. G. Brown assisted by Mrs. M. E. Vaughn and Mrs. Paul Griffin.

Entertain For Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Guthrie entertained a number of children in honor of the birthday of their daughter Virginia at their home at 1213 South Jefferson street, recently. Games and music occupied the time of the guests during the evening, following the dinner. Color tones for the party were pink and white and a lovely birthday cake formed the attractive centerpiece of the table. At the close of the evening many beautiful gifts were presented the honor guest. Assisting Mrs. Guthrie during the evening was Mrs. Dorothy Mahan.

L. A. B. Club

Mrs. Wilbur Jones, received the L. A. B. Club members in her home on Winslow avenue Wednesday evening. Ten were present and the hours were spent with fancy work and radio music. The prize of the evening was awarded Mrs. Annabel McFadden.

COLD RELIEVED INSTANTLY WAY DOCTORS NOW ADVISE

Hospital Method Doctors Now Advise For Home Use Helps Many Here to End Colds

Neglecting a head or chest cold is sure to cause needless misery and may risk pneumonia. So doctors are now recommending a method that is giving vast numbers of New Castle people almost instant relief—then quickly drives the cold out of one's system.

Miss Helen Parker, for example, neglected her cold until her eyes became inflamed, her nose stopped up and congestion started spreading. Then she called her doctor, who advised Ayer's Pectoral—a hospital certified compound of wild cherry, turpentine, etc.

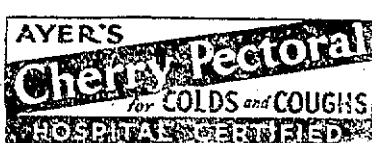

With the first pleasant swallow she felt the comforting, healing warmth. Relief began instantly, and in an hour or so the medication was absorbed by her system, loosening up congestion in her nose passages and chest. When she awoke next morning there was practically no sign of the cold—and in another day or so congestion had disappeared entirely.

Note: Other cases reported daily— all certified by attending physicians.

Absorbed by the system Ayer's Pectoral helps get rid of congestion, reduce the "croupy" cough, loosen and drives the cold out of your system.

Just a few pleasant spoonfuls now and you, too, will feel like a different person tomorrow. At all drug-gists.

KING OF THE NEWS

Today

March of Events.
Another Pact.
Another Trust.
Smallpox in China.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features
Synd., Inc.)

Trotzky, telling Mr. Ochs at considerable length just what happened to him, describes his downfall and exile as "la marche des événements." He might better have described his troubles as due to "la faiblesse humaine"—human frailty.

Trotzky couldn't hold his place because he lacked strength to hold it. Had powerful Lenin lived, he would have held power, and Trotzky in Lenin's shadow would have continued to direct the Russian army, which he did admirably.

Trotzky's statement that Stalin and other Russian leaders that exiled him and his friends are leaving "to the right," that is, toward conservatism and capitalism, will interest American conservative government.

Stalin, in other words, knows that power without money is a shadow, so he leans in the direction of money.

Revelation of a war agreement between France and Belgium disturbs the innocent British, but it doesn't disturb this country.

We are willing to put our fingers in the crack of any door, trusting to Providence to prevent the door suddenly closing.

The Germans are excited about the French-Belgian war pact, that, according to rumor, would compel either of the two nations to join the other in any fight against Germany.

This interesting revelation should convince our government that George Washington knew what he was talking about when he advised the United States to keep out of Europe's troubles.

The French have discovered an oil trust, with Britain and the United States combining to control oil producing fields all over the world, to the detriment of France.

American oil stock and oil well owners would like to know who runs that trust, and why it doesn't do something to prevent the squandering of oil.

A widespread outbreak of smallpox adds to China's troubles. The Chinese, more intelligent than some Americans, appreciate the importance of vaccination, and have designated March 1 next as "national vaccination day." Ignorance still opposes vaccination in spite of the fact that what was once the most dreaded disease has ceased to be important in civilized countries.

When Voltaire's friend, Catherine of Russia, was inoculated with vaccine from the arm of a little boy, and created that boy "Duke of Smallpox," every other face was disfigured by smallpox marks. If smallpox deaths were now what they were then, a city like Chicago would be fortunate if it escaped with 50,000 deaths from smallpox a year.

Mr. Nichols, Kansas City real estate man, said he would be willing to buy a picture by Leonardo Da Vinci, if certain of its genuineness, or do anything else in reason to help the city, of which he is so proud.

Kansas City almost bought a Leonardo Da Vinci, that, according to Joseph Duveen, Leonardo himself never saw.

Fortunately, Kansas City can struggle along without the help of Leonardo as long as factories develop, real estate goes up in value and packing houses operate.

Old Col. Coates, who built a first-class hotel in Kansas City more than half a century ago, the Dickey brothers, last drove their big bunch of steers to the Kansas City stockyards, and the boats that stopped at Kansas City's landing on the way to New Orleans, did more for Kansas City than could be done by all the painters that ever lived.

First wealth, then at your leisure, and no hurry about it, art.

Call money cost nine per cent Tuesday, but Wall Street persisted stoutly in its cheerfulness, with stocks going up, steel strong, copper high, with the cost of copper metal rising in price. Even oil stocks went up.

It is hard to discourage those that believe in the future of American values.

The Tampa Daily Times, cheerful about big Florida state, announces already 38,000 solid carloads of fruits and vegetables have been shipped north, and that is less than half the season's crop.

The shipments include more than 31,000 carloads of citrus fruits.

Carl Fisher, who has done a great deal for Florida, writes from Miami that even the 21 hotels, in private houses and on houseboats, have never been so great in Florida's history.

The stream of automobiles owing south companies with the stocks of carrier pigeons that once darkened the sky.

THE BROADWAY WAY
The locals tell of a young lass with stage aspirations who persistently urged the manager of a small town stock troupe to give her a chance. After many months of pleading, the impresario gave her a "bit." The amateur went through the horrible experience of being kidded, but eventually she clicked and was given prominent assignments.

Recently when the stock group went on tour through Ohio, it met with reverses. The chief couldn't attract enough coin to pay off, but the players didn't squawk. That is, except the lass who was given "a break." She went to court and got an attachment on the boxoffice.

OF ALL RACKETEERS!
They're just discovered a new type of racketeer along the Canyon. He is a handsome fellow, always attired in starched linen, and he has a way with the girls. He practices his stunts on the entertainers in the various cafes and it goes like this:

"I'll bet you a dollar," he says, "that I can kiss you without touching you."

The lass invariably puts up the money, arguing that it is impossible. After the lure is placed on the table, he plants a steaming kiss right smack on her lips and then chirps: "Well, I lose!" handing her the coin. Thus, for a dollar, he kisses the prettiest pharls.

PASTIME
The recently recorded suggestion for a diversion more fascinating than solitaire has elicited several letters from readers who say they were mightily pleased. The idea is to take only twenty-five cards from a poker deck and to play with them until five pat poker hands are arranged. You get wishes, full houses and straights. The ace is not to be employed in a small straight, however. One reader writes that she was successful twenty consecutive times, but got stuck on the twenty-first attempt. She queries: "Is it impossible to get stuck?" No, it isn't. But you must not become irritated or lose patience. Even if you lose, just think of the fun you have getting a swell headache.

HOME LIFE
We might have kept it spotless clean. And, oh, so trim and neat. Yet on our loveliest rug is seen The print of little feet.

And there upon the baseboard shows The furrows of a tiny nose. Left there by all the bumps and blows A kiddie-car has made.

About the house are many hints Of revelry and fun. The walls still hold the finger-prints In careless minutes done.

The furnishings are pleasure scarred Which once were shining new. But we indifferently regard The damage children do.

For had we wished it otherwise And bade them not to play, And had we frained ourselves to prize The trinkets of a day.

We could have kept the shiny gloss Of rug and wall and floor. But doing so, had meant the loss Of what we valued more.

For here we'd have them happy be, This here we'd have them play. Who would a spotless carpet see, Must keep the young away.

Since neatness cannot stand the blows Of little hands and feet, Deliberately, that loss we chose To keep their home-life sweet.

Melville Stone, News Genius Is Ranked Among Immortals

Character, Executive Ability, Professional Inspiration And Exemplification of Public-Spirited Journalism Seen in His Career

The greatness of Melville E. Stone, for the human race, the ANN ARBOR DAILY NEWS with having been "one of the foremost forces in the history of the nation in giving true enlightenment to the people" and the ROCK ISLAND ARGUS with having "brought the nations closer together." The CHARLOTTE NEWS asserts that he "brought a revolution, single-handed." The RICHMOND NEWS LEADER expresses amazement that "such changes in journalism could have been compassed in one man's lifetime" that "nearly all of them should have been connected with one man's life work."

"He was not alone esteemed for his professional ability by the newspaper fraternity as a whole," says the CHATTANOOGA TIMES, "but he was loved for his many qualities of heart and mind, and he will long be held in affectionate remembrance by all who had come within the magic of his genial and gentle personality." The DETROIT NEWS declares "he was a great planner, a great organizer, but above all he was great in character," and the CHARLESTON DAILY MAIL observes that "he was a man of high ideals because he had a fine character."

Mr. Stone according to the NEW YORK SUN thought "to make the Associated Press as impersonal as truth; from that equation his modesty ruled out his own personality. Creation of the institution was not the work of a dictator. As truly as the office holder's does, his tenure of office depended on the suffrage of other men. If his principles prevailed, it was because they had the ring of rightness about them." The MILWAUKEE JOURNAL affirms that "he never failed the trust which the newspapers of the country placed in his keeping" and the HUNTINGTON ADVERTISER recognizes that he "inculcated certain standards of journalism that are the pride and glory of newspaper men today."

Viewing him as the mold of an epoch in history and the captain of a mighty ideal, the ATLANTA JOURNAL gives the estimate: "Truth was the master passion of Melville E. Stone. He sought it with the ardor of a knight of old in quest of the Holy Grail, he served it with the courage of a soldier at the cannon's mouth, he revered it with the faith of a believer in whatsoever things are 'pure and of good report.'"

"It was his conception of the plan of a vast cooperative news-gathering organization, which by the very nature of its formation, would be inherently impartial and accurate to the limit of human endeavor, and his brilliant carrying out of this ambitious design," in the opinion of the FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM, "that made for Mr. Stone an imperishable monument." Make Petition For Air Mail

Need Guarantee Of 400 Letters Daily; Committee Will Petition Firms

Air Mail Plane Will Stop Four Times Daily If Mail Poundage Is Guaranteed

According to the report of Robert J. Tully, chairman of special committee of Commerce Committee in charge of investigating the air mail stop for this city further assurance that the poundage will be raised to the necessary five pounds daily is evidenced.

There has been some misunderstanding as to what constitutes a pound of mail. Just what the five pounds means is that there will have to be some 400 letters go out of the city daily by air mail.

It is not the amount of money paid but the exact total poundage. For instance, the committee states you pay for an ounce of mail for each letter but the letter does not average this much. Approximately 49 letters make a pound of mail.

A petition is being taken to business firms and individuals in the city for signatures. When the poundage is assured, the stop will be located here within 48 hours.

Four Stops Daily
This does not mean that the mail plane will stop but once a day. There will be two stops on each trip from Cleveland to Pittsburgh. In other words, the plane will halt at New Castle four times daily to carry mail east and west.

This will mean a great advantage to all senders of important mail with respect to time. Mail will reach its destination in this manner previous to its leaving the city in the present system.

The committee composed of Robert J. Tully, J. H. Lamb, Charles Cripps, John Higgins and Clarence Kimmel are making a special effort to obtain the stop for the city and are asking the whole-hearted support from every one.

They believe that 400 letters a day from a city this size is a very small proportion of the actual number leaving mailed each day and are confident that the number of letters will be petitioned.

Mayor Congratulates Motor Club Head

LOCAL AUTO SHOW FORMALLY OPENED DURING AFTERNOON

curated, as well as what is being done in the automobile world of the modern era.

Nearly 190 Cars
The big three-day show, with nearly 190 cars, opened today at 11 o'clock when the doors of The Cathedral auditorium were swung wide to the public for the first time. Everything was in place, every car was to its location, every booth was arranged, every flag was draped, every banner hung—in short, everything was completed.

Entrance is made at the east door of The Cathedral, the visitors walking through the huge lobby between the rows of attractive booths, down the west stairs to the ballroom. About two o'clock the members of the dealers association formed a miniature line of parade and started from The Cathedral to the City building, where Mayor W. H. Gillespie, chosen to officially open the greatest local auto show, became a member of the party.

Mayor Opens Show
When the party arrived at The Cathedral the mayor and official party made a tour of the lobby, ballroom, main and wing dining rooms. Then in the center of the ballroom amidst the hanging flags, waving banners and drooping smiles, Mayor Gillespie briefly and appropriately told of the greater show this year, the work necessary for such a show and congratulated the sponsors on the displays. With this simple but effective ceremony, the show was on and will continue to take place until 11 o'clock Saturday evening.

Following the opening rites strains of music broke the buzzes of conversation in the huge spaces filled by the cars and visitors.

As The News goes to press, a few minutes before three o'clock, the visitors are filling into the huge Cathedral to view the displays of cars, washing machines, radios, refrigerators, batteries, accessories and other materials in the booths.

Entertainment Tonight
This evening there will be orchestra music, directed by Ted Maclin; Richard Johns, Harry Evans, George Anthony and Joseph Strumwater, accompanied by Edwin Lewis, will sing; Miss Alberta McCormick will do some clever dance and song acts, while Harry Ross and Ernest Palus will sandwich comedy in between the performances.

The show, the Cathedral, the booths, the decorations, all are beautiful. Smiles are clinging to every pillar, flags adorn the hanging chandeliers, banners drape from the ceilings, palms, vividly green against the backgrounds of other hues, stand out; ferns, quiet and queenly, grace a nook there and a corner here.

To the eye that sees beauty in mechanics and symmetry, there is perhaps an even greater beauty in the car displays. There are not quite the planned-for hundred cars, there was not room, but the ballroom, main dining room and wing dining rooms are filled to capacity with cars of every line, every model, every color and every convenience.

Antique, Draws Interest
The little automobile manufactured in 1900, with its warning on the side to "Read Instructions Carefully", was receiving much attention by the spectators.

The second yearly auto show for this city is apparently meeting with success, judging from the number of persons who attended the opening today. There is still Friday and Saturday for the exhibition.

The show opens at 11 o'clock each morning, continuing open until the same hour in the evening. The entertainment program occurs throughout the afternoon and evening sessions.

From the early spectators and visitors, and from a few who were lucky enough to get a glimpse of the affair Wednesday, all praise has been given to the dealers association for their efforts and the wonderful display which is in The Cathedral.

The show during the past year was worthy of mention, but the present display cannot be classified by words of praise. It must be seen to be appreciated.

To every member of the dealers association and to every workman who helped to repolish the cars Wednesday, credit is due. There was a tremendous amount of work involved in getting the cars into the building, and there is still a great amount of work to be done. The hundreds of flags, flowers and other decorations have cost a great amount of both effort and money to the association and the association members are to be congratulated.

To General Chairman, Joe Rick and President, A. C. McCoy, with the committee members who have aided in every way, much credit should be given for their untiring work to make the displays of which the city may easily be proud.

This is but the second experiment of the local dealers in sponsoring a show of this kind, and with the indication of success that this show is being evidenced, there will no doubt be an annual show in the future.

In addition to Ray Hall, Anthony Marino and L. C. Johns, other officers in the association, members of the different committees who have had charge of arrangements are W. M. Snyder, James Barnes, T. E. Chambers, Louis Guntton, Stanley Whetstone, George Rodgers and Frank Phillips.

"Please pardon my frown... but someone in the studio just coughed... and spoiled our love scene"

"They've often called the movies 'the silent drama.' But there isn't much silence during the making of a movie."

"It's in the making of a 'Talkie' that studio silence is required. No one is allowed to make any noise, but the players. For the slightest sound in the studio registers on the sensitive recording mechanism. And an uninvited cough is a calamity."

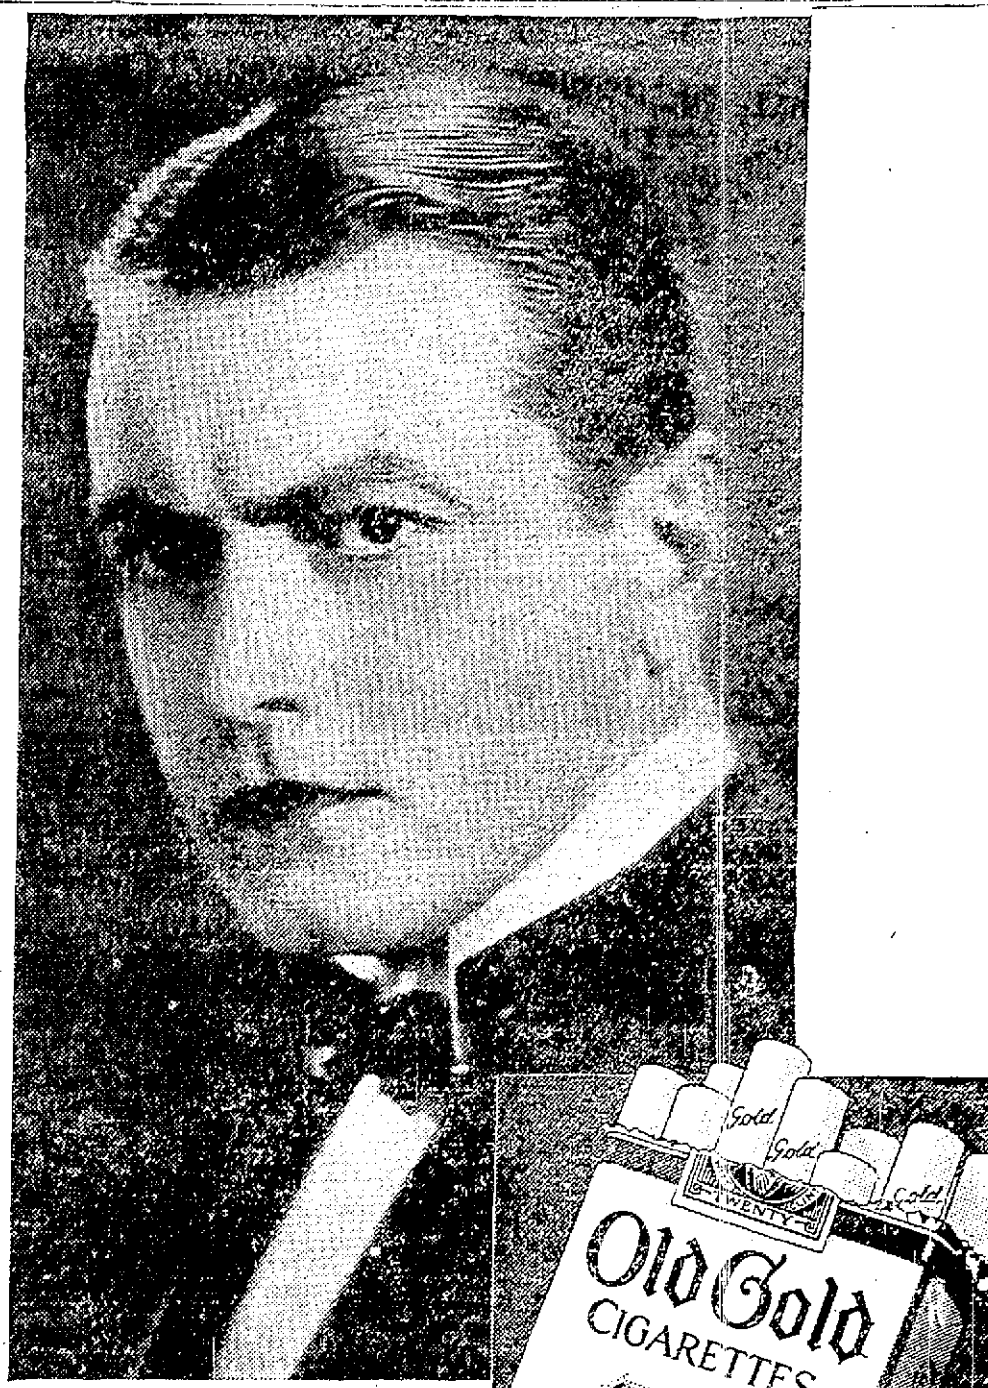

"The other day someone coughed during the recording of a love scene. Since then OLD GOLDS are the order of the day. For as all Hollywood knows, there's not a cough in a film-ful."

today was in a sling as a result of the accident. He suffered a dislocated shoulder and a slightly sprained and lacerated wrist.

His fiancée, who, as the fates would have it, was with him in the first serious crash he suffered since his New York-to-Paris hope which brought him fame, looked wan and pale today, apparently suffering from nervous reaction.

Miss Morrow, her mother, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, wife of the American ambassador, and Col. Lindbergh are expected to leave for the Morrow country home at Cuernavaca soon. There the betrothed couple will recuperate from the effects of the accident with a romantically beautiful sub-tropical background to aid them.

Coolness Widely Praised
His skill and coolness were being widely praised today. After the accident his one thought was for Miss Morrow's safety. He did not reveal his own injuries at all. They were discovered by a physician who examined him after treating Miss Morrow for shock at the American embassy.

The accident was the second of two sensations which the famous colonel and his bride-to-be caused here yesterday. The first was the departure of the couple in the colonel's plane, destination unrevealed. After the crash embassy officials stated that the couple had flown to a town in the state of Puebla and had done some shopping there.

Wheel Off Plane
Although Colonel Lindbergh was his usual self after the crash, dismissing it with—"It's an accident which might have happened to anybody, in any place, any time"—embassy attaches to whom he was more loquacious revealed the events leading up to the crash.

Soon after leaving the Puebla town the colonel discovered that the right wheel had loosened in taking off and had fallen off.

He immediately realized the seriousness of the situation. There were no parachutes in the plane. A landing had to be made on one wheel, a dangerous feat at 7,000 feet above sea level, for in the thin air of that altitude all landings must be made unusually fast.

The colonel informed Miss Morrow that they might have some trouble in landing. He placed cushions about her to protect her from shock and flying glass.

Plane Turns Over
Approaching the field, he signalled to the aviators below and then landed, keeping his plane tipped over on the left side to shift as much weight as possible on the one wheel. After rolling about 100 feet the plane turned a complete somersault, landing right side up. It was badly damaged.

Those on the field who rushed to the plane found the colonel already out and helping his fiancée from the plane. Despite his injury, he drove

A clear skin is irresistible

...in fact, popularity depends upon it

THAT priceless treasure—a clear, flawless, lovely skin—charms, with admiration, the hearts of men.

First impressions cannot be good without a clear skin—first impressions are quickly made and are not soon forgotten. Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize but new acquaintances may not be so charitable. Skin blemishes are not inviting. Neither can they be covered up. They embarrass. Hold people back. Steal away joy and happiness.

A lovely—clear skin—is within the reach of all. To those who have lost it, hope is offered. You, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose-petal in texture, pretty as a picture and without a single pimple.

Many thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking S.S.S. It is Nature's own blood tonic for raising the body's power of resistance to disease, improving the appetite, building firm flesh, and clearing the skin. S.S.S. promotes constructive metabolism (healthy body building). It increases the number of red blood-cells.

The way to the skin is through the blood. Strong, healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

All good drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

S.S.S. is made from fresh vegetable drugs and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

HICCUPS CAUSE FARMER'S DEATH

Findley Gregg Being Buried At Grove City; Other News

(Special To The News)
GROVE CITY, Feb. 28.—The funeral of Findley Gregg Mason, age 73 years, a resident of Grove City for the last 59 years, was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Christley, South Center street, this afternoon at two o'clock with the Rev. Homer Henderson, officiating. Interment will be made in Woodland cemetery.

Mr. Mason's death came very suddenly as he was in good health until Saturday when he was stricken with hiccups. His condition was not considered serious until a short time before his death.

Mr. Mason was a widely known farmer in this vicinity for many years. He was a faithful member of the United Presbyterian church.

He is survived by his wife, Melissa Jane, two daughters, Mrs. Martha Breckenridge of Warren, Ohio, and Mrs. Bertha Christley of Grove City, one sister, Mrs. Martha Sinclair, Alton, Iowa, four grandchildren also survive.

H. D. Murray was elected President of the Grove City Country Club for the coming year at a meeting held recently by the directors of the club. Other officers elected were: vice-president H. O. White, secretary and treasurer, J. P. Hassler, D. F. Black was elected a director to fill the vacancy of M. L. McBride.

Dr. Homer B. Henderson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of this city was the speaker at the Men's banquet of the Presbyterian church of Mercer. The dinner was served by the ladies of the church. Covers were laid for 100 men. Dr. Henderson proved a very interesting speaker.

The ladies of the Thistle Club will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Jane Firm of South Center street on Thursday evening. Fancy work and a social time will be enjoyed during the evening after which lunch will be served by the hostess.

A number of antiques were on display in the room of Miss Johnston of the local high school last week which caused a considerable amount of interest. The antiques were furnished by the pupils of the school. The one that would interest most Grove City people was a copy of the Mercer County Whig dated 1848. The oldest antique on display was a glass brought from Germany by Homer Rice. The glass is 250 years old and Mr. Rice's ancestors made it by hand. The other antiques were, a small copper tea pot that was used during the Revolutionary period, an old brass candle stick, 1795 silver dollars with lettered edges, gold quarters and large copper pennies, which have been out of circulation for many years.

Parson Chides Wives Who Do Not Cook

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 28.—Rev. James Shepherd, progressive parson of 15-lington parish has broken out again. He called a meeting of the women of his church. This is what he told them:

"Is it fair for a woman to vow to love and cherish her husband till death do us part and then neglect to cook for him?"

"There are men in bed with the flu today because their wives know more about dancing than they do about dinners."

"There is no canned meat where there is love at home."

"Freedom for women often means starvation for men."

Just think what fun the belligerent nations will have in the next war, in interfering with radio programs of the enemy.

Old Age No Longer Means Poor Health
--- Loss of Vigor

Give Your Blood The Six Mineral Salts Every Body Organ Must Have.

Any person who has a knowledge of medicine will tell you that your body must have six vital mineral salts to live—to feel young and gloriously healthy!

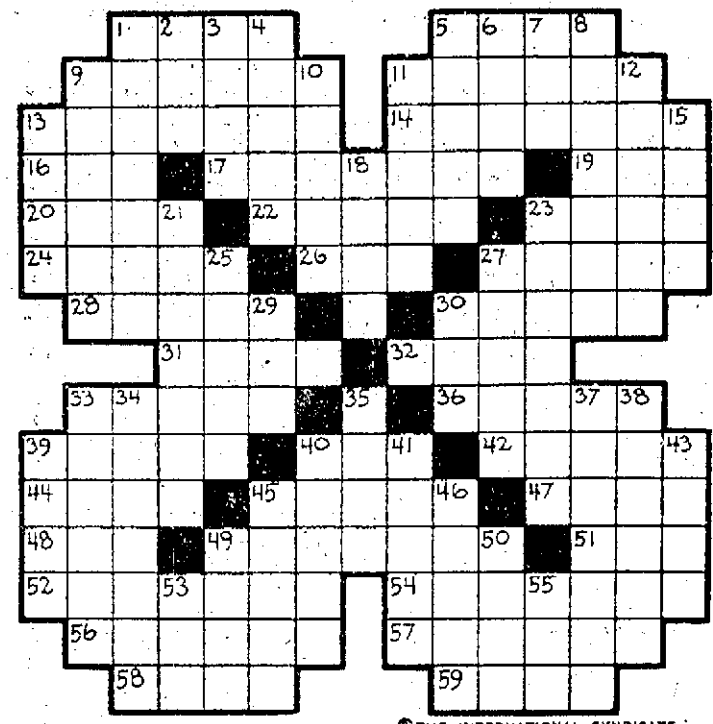

In this modern age of cooking, etc., it's impossible to get these salts from the food you eat—that is why KRUSCHEN SALTS may soon become a vital necessity in every household.

KRUSCHEN SALTS are an ideal blend of the six mineral salts which cause the bowels, kidneys and liver to function properly. When these organs are in good condition—no need to fear constipation, kidney or liver trouble!

KRUSCHEN SALTS also contain the necessary proportion of Sodium Chloride, Potassium Iodide and Potassium Sulphate which clear the blood of harmful acids, form a tonic for your tissues and are carried through every body organ. You can readily see how strong, vigorous health will soon be yours again!

This Guarantee Protects You
A quarter of a teaspoon (generous measure) in a glass of hot water every morning keeps you free from constipation, biliousness, headaches, nervousness, depression, over-acidity, rheumatism, pimples and even eczema.

SUSPICIOUS MISS PARROT.

Miss Parrot gave no sign of coming down to earth. Peter kept on trying to coax her.

"The sun slants down through these branches and shines right in my eyes every time I try to get a good look at your lovely coat. Besides I am getting a crick in my neck from staring at you Poll! My eyes are not in the top of my head you know, and it is much easier for me to look down than up."

"A very bad plan, I say," remarked Poll, but in a much more pleasant tone than she had spoken yet.

"How can you know what is above you—ready to pounce down upon you out of the sky at any moment if you always keep your eyes upon the ground? However, where you choose to look is your own business of course, boy, and none of mine. If you really wish me to come down so that you may the better admire my beauty though that is another matter."

"Quite sure you are not going to try any tricks that might keep me away from the sycamore tree? It doesn't do to trust any one more—not even your own shadow. I saw mine the other night and it was big and black—didn't look a bit like me. I was afraid of it and put my head under my wing in a hurry!"

"Quite sure I'm not going to try any tricks, my Poll," declared the boy. "My you are the most suspicious bird I ever met in all my life. Come on, trust a fellow do!" Peter laughed and beckoned to the bird.

"Wouldn't you like to hear how my Poll takes her nap? And maybe you'll not believe me when I tell you she not only understands but can talk the Two-Leg language."

"Absurd! Ridiculous! Don't believe it! How can she? What does she say? Could I learn?"

Chattering so fast that the boy could scarcely make out what she was saying, Poll, interested at last, flew out of the tree and down to the ground beside the boy.

Peter made up his mind that he would not say a word to make Poll a bit more vain than she already was but he could not help an exclamation of surprise as she took her place beside him.

"My, what a gay bird you are! I don't wonder that you are proud of your fine feathers. Are you sure that some Two-Legs didn't catch you once upon a time and paint you in all those bright shades?"

BAR-LE-DUC, France, Feb. 28.—A remarkable collection of objects of archaeological interest has been discovered by workmen carting sand near the Orain river. These objects, dated from the Stone Age to the Middle Ages.

Two sharp piercing instruments in reindeer bone and stone weights perforated for fishing nets were the oldest. There were also many pieces of pottery of the Bronze age, an ax and a hatchet of Marnian epoch in Gaul and bits of pottery and an iron knife, fragments of vases and jars from the Gallo-Roman period and an iron sword of the Middle Ages.

Music Campaign Meeting Tonight

DRIVE TO CLOSE SATURDAY NIGHT

"The greatest need in the membership campaign of the New Castle Civic Music association which is being conducted this week is haste in getting the task finished," Herbert Pears, president, said Wednesday afternoon at a meeting at campaign headquarters of the majors in the membership drive, in commenting on the present campaign for 1000 or more members, the goal the association hopes to have reported by the co-workers before 10 o'clock on Saturday night. After this hour no memberships will be available.

"It is very important," said Rev. F. S. Clifford, chairman of the campaign, and W. S. Wright, campaign director from national headquarters, "that everyone whether an officer, director, major, captain, co-worker or a member of the civic music association be present at the mass meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at campaign headquarters."

At this meeting tonight final plans will be made for the remaining two days of the drive. "The officers again emphasize the importance of every member who has not remitted their annual dues to please do so at once at headquarters or to any of the co-workers."

M. D. Wells, one of the majors in the Wednesday meeting, said: "Let every member and co-worker adopt this slogan, 'Every Member Get a Membership' and help put our civic music association over the top in a big way before the dead line at 10 o'clock on Saturday night."

"It should be well understood that a membership card is the only means of admittance to all the local concerts, also to all C. M. A. concerts in any of over 130 cities to date now using this successful civic music plan," said Mr. Wright, who quoted one traveling man having heard 14 concerts on his 53 membership card.

Application cards for new members can be secured at headquarters at The Castleton between 9 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. daily and up to 10 o'clock Saturday night.

Demand For Coke Shows Increase

Weekly Production Of Coke In Connellsville Section Show Big Increase

(International News Service) CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 28.—Demand for coke continues to increase, with the result that for the week ending February 23, the output was 67,940 tons, which was within 4,500 of the peak record for 1928, the weekly summary compiled here today by International News Service today revealed. The gain over the previous week was 1,500 tons, of which 750 tons was at furnace plants and 810 tons at Merchant.

Merchant operators fired 351 ovens during the week, but they did not come into full production of the total would have been considerably higher during the current week 640 ovens were fired by one furnace interest—the H. C. Frick Coke company. It is almost certain that this tonnage will boost considerably the total in the next summary upwards of 100 ovens were lighted at Merchant plants this week.

There has been a steady upward trend in both price and demand for several weeks, but there is an inclination on the part of some producers to refrain from growing enthusiastic over the outlook, feeling that the revival may not be of a permanent character.

High rate of production in the Steel industry is considered the cause of the revival at the plants of the Frick company. It has come to be a recognized fact here, that when steel production tops 90 percent there will be activity at the Beehive plants of the Connellsville region when steel drops below 90 per cent the supply of coke from the United States Steel corporation's by-product plants is ample, and the Beehives are blown out.

Pennsy Employees Honor Jos. C. Stoltz

Freight Department Employee Retires From Active Service

Employees of the local freight department gathered at noon today and presented Joseph C. Stoltz, tallyman, who retires from the service of the company tonight, with a handsome traveling bag, a token of high appreciation and esteem for him during his many years of friendship with them.

Mr. Stoltz, who resides at 142 East Lehigh avenue, is retiring from the active service of the Pennsylvania at the age of 70 years, having spent the last 31 years in the railroad's employ.

Mr. Stoltz knew nothing of the gift that was to be presented to him until shortly before noon when he was notified to appear in a certain room, where had gathered officials and his fellow employees. It was E. A. Penton, supervising agent, who made the presentation and who cited to the assembled delegation the story of Mr. Stoltz's long service with the railroad.

After he had been presented the bag, Stoltz thanked the men for their deep thoughtfulness and kind appreciation. He remarked that it has been a pleasure to be in companionship with the men who were his co-workers and said he'd never forget the splendid fellowship experienced with them, as long as he lives.

Mr. Stoltz entered the employ of the Pennsylvania 31 years ago at the time when the transfer station was located at Mahoningtown. When Mr. Stoltz finishes his work at the local depot this evening he will be closing forever his long career with the Pennsylvania.

Treasury Organization Will Continue Intact Under Hoover Regime

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—With Secretary Mellon remaining in the cabinet, the present treasury organization will be maintained virtually intact, and general policies will be unchanged, it was learned today. Most high officials in the treasury have been asked not to submit their resignations, indicating that for the time at least they will continue in office. As a rule at the end of an administration the officials subordinate to the secretary resign to await the pleasure of the new chief. Practically all of the "key" jobs in the treasury have been filled by Mellon, from the important post of undersecretary, to comptroller of the currency, commissioner of internal revenue, the assistant secretaries and bureau chiefs.

Ogden L. Mills, of New York, one of the Hoover leaders in the state, succeeded Garret B. Winston as undersecretary. He was mentioned for a diplomatic post, but according to the most authentic information he will remain in the treasury. The general opinion prevails that Mellon will not serve through the entire administration. L. will be succeeded by Mills.

Seymour Lowman, also of New York, assistant secretary in charge of prohibition, and commissioner of the prohibition James M. Doran will continue to hold down the dry enforcement assignments—at least until enforcement is transferred to the department of justice.

Girl Scout Rally Saturday In Y. W.

Rally Is For All Girl Scout Members In The City And Public

New Castle council of Girl Scouts will have a rally Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A. The rally is at 2 o'clock. The scout directors from out of town will be present, Miss Catherine de la Mar of Sharon, Pa., and Miss Bobby Owen of Aliquippa, Pa.

A part of the program to be presented will be a play, entitled, "A Girl Scout's Hope Chest." Mrs. Herbert Christiansen has directed the cast presenting the play. Girl Scout Troop 6, Captain Mrs. W. H. Hanger will present the ceremony of scout laws.

Each Girl Scout troop will sing a song and there will be singing of Girl Scout songs by the entire group.

Badges will be awarded by Mrs. George Carpenter, assistant chairman of the court of awards committee of the New Castle Girl Scout council. Second class, merit and first class badges will be awarded at this rally.

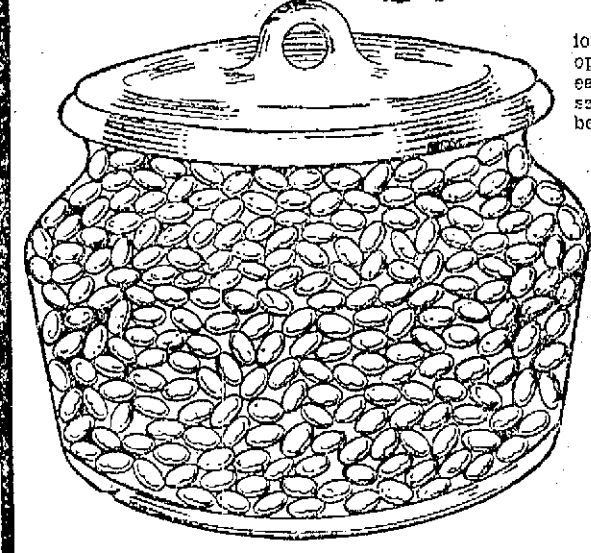

NORTON WILL SPEAK AT SCOUT SCHOOL

Le Roy Norton, teacher in the Ben Franklin junior high school, will be one of the speakers at the elementary sessions of the Boy Scout leaders training school which will meet Monday evening at the First Christian church on the diamond. Mr. Norton will speak to the group on "Play and Education."

Degree Of Uncertainty Over Agriculture, Labor And Commerce Posts

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Herbert Hoover has almost finished the job of picking his cabinet. A few decisions remain to be made in the next 48 hours, but the major part of the work is ended. Despite the secrecy which the president-elect himself has observed and which he has insisted upon others observing, seven of the selections can be stated with a fair degree of certainty. They are:

Secretary of state—Henry L. Stimson of New York.
Secretary of the treasury—Andrew W. Mellon of Pennsylvania.
Attorney general—William D. Mitchell of Minnesota.
Secretary of the navy—Charles P. Adams of Massachusetts.
Secretary of war—James W. Good of Iowa.
Secretary of the interior—Ray Lyman Wilbur of California.
Postmaster general—Walter F. Brown of Ohio.

Some degree of uncertainty still exists concerning three posts—agriculture, labor and commerce. Mr. Hoover may have made up his mind concerning the men he wants to fill these positions, but if he has the fact has not become definitely known.

Davis May Stay.
Until a few days ago it was considered more or less certain that William N. Doak, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, would be secretary of labor. Now, however, some doubts have arisen. It was reported today that for the time being the present secretary, James J. Davis, might be retained. Inter-union rivalry and jealousy is said to have cropped out concerning the Doak appointment.

For the commerce post, it is known that Mr. Hoover would like to have his old friend, Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles banker and economist. But Robinson doesn't want the job.

Clarence M. Woolley, the radiator manufacturer, and Stuart W. Cramer of North Carolina, were regarded as the leading possibilities for the appointment today. Cramer was one of the financial "angels" for the Hoover campaign in the south and for a time was talked of for the navy, he having been a classmate of Secretary Wilbur's at Annapolis.

Agriculture Post Puzzles.
The job that is said to be giving Mr. Hoover most concern is agriculture. The leading possibilities are considered to be A. J. Glover, Wisconsin dairyman-farmer; L. J. Tabor of Ohio, master of the national grange, and ex-Governor Samuel R. McKelvie of Nebraska.

There has also been some talk of Eugene Meyer, head of the federal farm loan bureau.

The selection of Good for the war department occasioned some surprise until it became known that the town is to be Mr. Hoover's liaison officer to Capitol Hill. Good served many years in the house and upon his voluntary retirement a few years ago was chairman of the powerful appropriations committee. He was regarded as one of the real leaders of the house. Mr. Hoover believes that his contacts there will be of invaluable aid to the administration.

Highland W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. S. S. Sampson on Boyles avenue with 13 present. The meeting was in the form of a Frances Willard memorial, each one giving a brief sketch from the life of Frances Willard.
A general discussion followed on some each member obtain a new member for the membership campaign.

Scout First Aid
Meet Occurs Friday

Carnegie Steel Will Give Fine Trophy To Winners;
Occurs At Auditorium

Twenty Boy Scout troop teams of five boys each will meet at the Carnegie auditorium Friday evening for the first honors in first aid work for the county. The county wide meet will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock under the direction of the Carnegie Steel Co., who will have five local doctors to act as judges.

The winning team will receive a handsome trophy in the shape of a wall plaque which is the gift of Robert J. Tully, superintendent of the local Carnegie plant.

The various teams contesting will receive a certain set of first aid problems which they must judge and administer aid. One member of the team members acts the role of patient.

The various troops have been practicing this type of work for months and indications are that it will be a meet with much educational value.

The winners, in addition to receiving the trophy, will also be eligible to compete in the district first aid meet which will take place early in the spring.

All of the troop registration will not be filed until this evening and it is thought that there will be no less

Charles Chaplin
Battling Death

Famous Comedian Now Suffering With Spinal Influenza; Pneumonia Threatened

(International News Service)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Feb. 28.—Charles Chaplin, famous comedian of the silver screen, was battling death early today. Spinal influenza developed in the renowned actor's condition, following a relapse in his illness from ptomaine poisoning. It was reported.
Physicians expressed grave fears for his life.
Dr. Cecil Reynolds, in charge of the comedian's case, remained at his bedside throughout the night. Chaplin's palatial residence was closely guarded from outside intrusion, while all telephone communication with the house was suspended.

The noted player spent a restless night, according to reports at his studio in Hollywood. His temperature was high, steadily exceeding 101 degrees.

The danger of pneumonia also threatened, it was reported.
Every known scientific device was brought into play to avert pneumonia, Dr. Reynolds said.

Chaplin's relapse, it was reported, resulting from the disobedience of his bedside attendants to physicians' orders. It was said that his nurses and servants served him with solid foods, after liquid nourishment had been prescribed.

Heavy gloom pervaded the Chaplin studio, where all activity abruptly ceased last Monday when the star collapsed on the lot. Immediately after the collapse, the comedian was rushed to his home and all production work was suspended.

For two days Chaplin's condition was fairly encouraging. Then, at midnight Tuesday, the relapse came.

Late yesterday afternoon the famous funny man was declared improving, but during the night, he tossed about on his bed, his condition showing a constant decline.
Deep anxiety was felt in the motion picture colony over the great actor's condition. The Chaplin studio was being flooded with telephone calls made by the ill comedian's many friends. Telegrams poured in from all parts of the country, expressing hopes for the actor's recovery.

All questions must be deposited in the question box each Sunday morning. The questions asked on Sunday morning will be read at the evening service and answered the following Sunday evening. It will be strictly confidential. Much interest is being manifested among the young people and it is expected that there will be an increased Sunday evening attendance.

To Give Program.
Under the auspices of the trustees a program will be given in St. John's Holy Church of America Sunday afternoon. The song service and devotion will begin at 2:30 which will be portion of the Sunday evening service to the answering of questions on the five leading or greatest problems of the day including the religious, social, civic, educational and economic.

Marriage Of Lindy To Occur In Mexico At Morrow Estate

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 28.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the ace of clouds and one heart, will be married to Miss Anne Spencer Morrow, his betrothed, in the Morrow estate in the beautiful Cuernavaca valley, 60 miles up a mountain highway from this city. It was learned from a reliable source today.

It had previously been believed, and was not denied, that the couple would be married at Englewood, New Jersey, where the Morrow family maintain their "New York home."

The date of the nuptials is not known but it is understood that it will be soon.

The wedding, it is said, will be quiet, with possibly only members of the two families present. It may be so quiet as to be almost secret, with no official announcement in advance.

Dwight W. Morrow, the United States ambassador to Mexico, and the father of Miss Anne, Col. Lindbergh himself and the demure little girl who is to be the bride all have a horror of publicity. They cannot understand how the outside world of strangers can be interested in a transaction so intimate.

It had been believed in some quarters that Miss Anne and her family would try to wean the hazardous young man from his favorite pastime of hopping through the clouds at will. If any such attempt were made it was unsuccessful.

Asks Support For Builders Measure

Chamber Of Commerce Mails Out Many Letters Urging Support Of Local Products

Two thousand letters from Ira M. Ramsey, president of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce were mailed out this morning to organizations, business houses and individuals, urging that support be given and that representatives be urged to stand by the Treadway bill which will protect manufacturers of building materials.

The proposed bill will place a tariff on foreign building products to the extent that competition of American made building materials will not be seriously endangered, as they are reported to be at the present time.

Notable among the products which are endangered by this competition is cement. As there are a number of large cement plants in the county, it was deemed advisable to do all possible to urge the adoption of the measure and in order to protect these home industries.

Paper Mill Road Holding Up Well

Councilman C. H. Reeves stated today that the road which he caused to be built up in the paper mill district and fronting the McCandless property in that district is holding up well against the high water conditions of the Neshannock creek. The fill was made at his direction of old brick and other similar solid materials, with the result that there will be little need of further fill this spring, in spite of the high water conditions.

Charge Butler Pair Broke Door Glass

J. C. McBride and Thomas Bailey, said to be from Butler, Pa., were arrested about three o'clock this morning at the Owl Cafe on East Washington street by Officers Ritty and Letera following some trouble in that place during which the glass in the door was broken. They are alleged to have caused the trouble and damage.

They put up $20 to cover the damage done and forfeits of $10 each for their appearance at police court on Saturday to answer to charges of drunk and disorderly conduct.

Funeral Services For Rev. Stratton In First M. E. Church

Many Friends And Associate Pastors Attend Impressive Gathering Wednesday Afternoon

Impressive funeral services for the late Rev. J. L. Stratton of Haus avenue, one of the most beloved and outstanding ministers of the Methodist churches of the Erie Conference, whose ministry extended over half a century, were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Dr. H. C. Weaver, pastor of the church officiated assisted by Dr. S. F. Neigh, superintendent of New Castle district of the Erie Conference, Dr. C. O. Meade of Grove City, Dr. C. G. Parr of Sharon and Dr. C. B. Winger, president of the New Castle Ministerial Association and pastor of the Central Presbyterian church. Selections on the organ and a solo number by Mrs. W. P. Felch were given during the service. Many beautiful flowers expressed sympathy, and eulogies were read.

The large auditorium was almost completely filled with sorrowing friends and associate ministers of Rev. Stratton. Ministers from out of town included Rev. C. E. Petree of Grove City, Rev. J. B. Edwards of Harrisville, Rev. F. H. Frampton, of Slippery Rock, Dr. C. G. Farr, Sharon, Rev. W. A. Thompson of Sharon, Rev. I. E. Rocell of Sharpsville, Rev. W. C. Smeltzer of West Middlesex, Dr. C. O. Meade of Grove City, Rev. S. H. Barlett of Edinburg, Rev. Claude Downs of Savannah and Rev. Miller of Volant. Others from the city were Dr. S. L. Maxwell, Rev. J. L. Petrie and Rev. C. J. Baker.

Seats were reserved for the local Ministerial Association which was well represented.

Burial was made in Oak Park cemetery and the pallbearers were John Emery, E. E. Marshall, Robert Halner, Samuel Reare, Ernest Griner and Lee Marvin.

DISTRICT FLOOD WATERS RECEDING; TWO LIVES LOST

Although the flood stages were unexpected the actual damage done was said to be small in proportion to suddenness and the depth which the waters reached.

Believe Floods Halted

Rain or snow is forecast for today, but weather observers do not believe it will be in sufficient amount to cause the rivers and streams of the state to become raging torrents again.

Both of those drowned were boys. Bolek Wroblewski, 11, was swept away by the waters of Charters creek at Canonsburg, and Joseph Koehler, nine, Pittsburgh, slipped into the ice-choked Allegheny. Wroblewski's body was recovered. It is believed the body of Koehler was swept on into the Ohio.

Ice Jam 20 Miles
In the central portion of the state an ice jam 20 miles in length blocks the Susquehanna river channel. This is causing back waters to threaten the flooding of business sections of Lock Haven and Jersey Shore. It is reported that a road between Lock Haven and Chariton is completely inundated and all traffic at a standstill.

A bridge was swept away near Ephrata. Roads in the vicinity of Gettysburg, Carlisle and Bolling Springs were under six inches of water. No lives have been lost in central Pennsylvania. Several families, however, have been forced to abandon their homes.

Blind Charlie Is In Need Of Guide

Charlie Thomas, New Castle blind man and grinder, needs a small boy to guide him. If any little chap wants a job he should see Charlie at room 3, 1327 Moravia street.

Charlie also says that any poor woman with children that wishes to have a home free of rent for taking care of the place should also see him.

PULASKI TOWNSHIP FARM MEET

Pulaski township farmers are meeting this afternoon at the Thurman Phillips farm to plan the agricultural activities for that community during the next summer. These activities are under the supervision of the local agricultural extension association.

Friday, the Hickory township farmers are meeting at the A. E. McCreary farm at 10 a. m. and at 2 p. m. the Washington township group will meet at the John Pherson home.

Harry Cook of Hillcrest avenue has returned from Hillard, Pa., where he attended the funeral service for his mother the late Mrs. Harriet Cook.

Miss Jessie Calahan of Boyles avenue, teacher in the West Side school, who is confined to her home with scarlet fever, is reported to be recovering rapidly.

Mrs. James M. Carpenter of Lakewood, returned home today after visiting her parents and sister Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sampson and Mrs. William Klee, Boyles avenue.

The condition of Mrs. John Thomas of Electric street, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the New Castle hospital, is reported to be getting along nicely.

E. J. Berquist, former superintendent of the City Rescue Mission, is spending a few days at his home on Butler avenue. He expects to return to Buffalo the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sturdevant, Monro street, left Wednesday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend several months with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patterson.

Mrs. Orpha Cowden, E. Long avenue, has been removed to her home after undergoing an operation in the New Castle hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Matthias Fox of Rural Valley, is spending some time at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connors, and daughter Elizabeth, Crescent avenue, have returned from Meadville, Pa., where they attended the funeral of the former brother-in-law, Charles F. Dunbar, who was well known in this city.

Edwin DeVore of Court street, confined to the New Castle hospital due to injuries received in a recent automobile accident, is reported to be recovering rapidly. It is thought that he will be removed from the hospital to his home soon.

Bank Robbers Are Sentenced At Greensburg

Trio Of Youths Implicated In Trafford City Bank Robbery Get Eight-Year Terms

(International News Service) GREENSBURG, Pa., Feb. 28.—Edward (Eddie) Motes, Sam Fucci and Patrick E. Trader, the trio of youths who participated in the holdup and robbery of the First National Bank of Trafford and the theft of $13,000 last November 23, were today sentenced to a term of 8 to 16 years in the Western penitentiary by Judge W. T. Dom in criminal court here.

In addition, Motes and Fucci were assessed fines totalling $1,500 each on charges of carrying concealed weapons and pointing firearms. Fucci and Trader are from Monongah, West Virginia and Motes is from Fairmont.

The youths arrested by state police after the crime entered pleas of guilty after the start of their trial two weeks ago. A fourth member of the gang escaped and is believed to have the bulk of the stolen cash.

A novel feature in the sentencing of the youths was the appearance in their behalf of O. M. Kimmel, paymaster of the P. R. R. of Trafford, who was kidnapped by the bandits. Kimmel informed the court that he had been treated well by Fucci and Motes with whom he rode during the attempt to escape and claimed that Fucci told him he was going to "go straight after this job."

Constables Are Under State Fire

Measure Before Legislature Would Open Way For Removal Of Corrupt Officers

(From News Bureau) HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 28.—If the "Constables Bill" which passed the House of Representatives unanimously on Monday evening gets through the Senate and is signed by Governor Fisher it will be a much simpler task of removing corrupt constables than it has been in the past.

Under the provisions of the bill upon petition of one or more citizens, proving charges of corruption or other malfeasance in office, the court can remove the officer.

The bill is sponsored by an eastern member of the house and the reasons ascribed are that corruption among constables has made it necessary for some drastic action. Charges have been made informally that constables have been accepting money for the settlement of cases, that exorbitant costs have been put in and that they have exceeded the authority which has been given them.

The bill did not receive a dissenting vote in the house and has gone to the senate for its action.

Council Takes No Action On Request

County Inspection Of Dairies Not Arranged; No Action On Pension Bill

So far city council has not acted on Clem Crisel's request, sponsored by Milk Dealers' association to have the city conduct sanitary inspection at county milk dairies. The milk business in New Castle amounts to about $1,000,000 annually. The city inspects the milk only on complaint or when it reaches the city.

The pension bill which it was proposed to pass sometime ago is lying almost dead as a frozen frog in committee. There has been a pension ordinance on the books since 1922 but no one has yet enjoyed its benefits. It was planned to revamp the bill and put it into effect for police and firemen.

VOLANT MAN HAS OLD HALF DOLLAR

W. M. C. Drake of Volant has a coin which he believes should be entered in the old coin contest. It is a silver half dollar coined in 1808. On one side is the head of "Liberty," represented by a woman and 13 stars, representing the 13 original states. On the opposite side there is an eagle "United States of America" and "E pluribus unum." Mr. Drake has had the coin for many years.

They call it the stock market the pulse of the country, and it keeps on beating — all who tackle it. — The Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

West Virginia Would Name Perry Highway

Another controversy between the north and south looms over the naming of Route 19, which extends from Lake Erie to Tallahassee, Fla., which, however, will not terminate in civil strife.

The West Virginia legislature in a bill naming Route 19, which is known locally as the Perry highway, the "Stonewall Jackson highway" is asking other states through which the route passes to adopt the same name.

But the section of route No. 19 in Pennsylvania between the West Virginia state line and Pittsburgh is known as the William Plinn highway, having been so named in honor of the late senator by proclamation of Gov. Pinchot in 1926. Between Pittsburgh and Erie, No. 19 has enjoyed the name of the Perry highway for 12 years.

The West Virginians selected the Jackson name for No. 19 because it passes the famous Confederate leader's birthplace near Clinchburg, W. Va.

Virginia, North Carolina and other southern states were not slow in signifying their intention to adopt the name.

Guilty Of Murder For Shooting Dry Agent, In Maryland

(International News Service) HAGERSTOWN, Md., Feb. 28.—Reginald E. Walters, erstwhile informer for the federal prohibition forces, today was awaiting sentence, having been found guilty last night of murder in the first degree. The jury deliberated an hour and 30 minutes before returning the verdict that carries the death penalty.

Walters was charged with shooting Hunter R. Stotler, a dry agent working out of Pittsburgh on July 26, 1927. At his first trial in November 1927 he was convicted of murder in the first degree without capital punishment.

During the second trial this week Walters claimed self-defense, asserting that while he and Stotler were on a raiding trip in the mountains Stotler reached for his gun during an argument and Walters shot him.

CENTRAL CITIES OF STATE BATTLE AGAINST FLOODS

Rain Adds To Floods.
Rain last night and early today contributed an additional volume of water to the already swollen streams and other roads along various streams will probably be closed by nightfall.

A bridge was swept away near Ephrata, Lancaster county, and roads between here and Gettysburg, Carlisle and Bolling Springs were under six inches to a foot of water. The river here dropped approximately two feet to a nine-foot level during the night as the ice gorge moved out.

Department of forests and waters officials said there was little danger of serious damage resulting from the floods, with the exception of that caused by the ice jam near Lock Haven. No lives have been reported lost although several families in various sections of Central Pennsylvania have been forced to flee their homes.

BOTH LOCAL JUDGES AT OUTSIDE COURT

Judge R. L. Hildebrand is at Beaver today where he is hearing arguments in the disbarment proceedings against Attorney A. G. Heibling. The case was heard by Judge Hildebrand some time ago. Judge James A. Chambers is at Pittsburgh where he is holding court this week.

New Hungarian Conspiracy Is Revealed Today

Bela Kun, Former Communist Dictator Now In Moscow Is Behind Revolution (International News Service) BUDAPEST, Feb. 28.—A conspiracy to overthrow the Hungarian government has been discovered it was revealed today.

Bela Kun, former Communist dictator of Hungary, who is now in Moscow, was said to be behind it.

The police have arrested 60 Communists on charges of plotting against the government.

Bela Kun was arrested in Vienna last year where he had flown secretly in an airplane. At that time he was accused of plotting against the Hungarian regency. After a brief period in jail he was sent back to Russia. The Hungarian government made an unsuccessful effort to get him to stand trial for killings that took place while he was in control of the Budapest government.

Coolidge Breaks Long Precedent By Departing From White House With Visage Wreathed In Smiles

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington Correspondent For Central Press and New Castle News
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Calvin Coolidge leave the White House with a triumphant toot of trumpets.

This is something no other president has done in a long time.

Even had Warren G. Harding lived, his term could hardly have ended happily. Woodrow Wilson retired a physical wreck and crushed by disappointment. William Howard Taft was a good loser—but he needed to be, after the thumping defeat which terminated his presidential tenure.
Theodore Roosevelt departed so regretfully that he tried to leave the door ajar for his return—only to have it slammed after him. William Mc-Kinley did not live to become an exception. Grover Cleveland closed his second administration with the political roof falling on his head. Harrison was beaten for re-election. Arthur for a renomination, which he wanted; like McKinley, Garfield died tragically; Hayes' whole term was clouded.

In a half century, at least, until Calvin Coolidge's day, not a retiring president has descended the White House steps in as high spirits as at the hour he ascended them.

From all appearances Mr. Coolidge not only is in as good spirits as ever he was, but decidedly better.
He leaves because he CHOSE to do so.

In office, he has accomplished what he set out to accomplish.

He turns over to his successor the leadership of a party which his own leadership has strengthened.

His personal political credit stands at a high level.

His health is robust.
He is not yet old.

With the presidency of the United States to start from, in a sense he is on the threshold of a career, rather than at the end of one.

Life lies before him.
Is it any wonder that Mr. Coolidge looks cheerful? He faces the future with decided advantages in his favor.

Few persons who have been in close contact with Calvin Coolidge from the time of his induction into office until the last days of his administration have failed to remark upon the change which has come over him.

Yet there is reason to believe that the real Mr. Coolidge is the Mr. Coolidge of today; not the Mr. Coolidge of the latter half of 1923, and of 1924, and of the entire subsequent period until the date of that celebrated "do not choose" utterance of his, toward the end of his Black Hills vacation in 1927.

It was directly following that utterance that the change in him began to be noticed. However, it was gradual for a good while. Not until late January or early February, 1929, can Mr.
Coolidge really be said to have completed his transformation.

Or was it, in fact, no change at all?
Was it simply a reversion to the original Mr. Coolidge?

What a president was like before he became president generally is forgotten, with surprising thoroughness, very soon after he moves into the White House.

His surroundings invest him with a new and artificial personality, and his previous one does not even seem to be remembered.

The former Mr. Hoover already is a rather vague reminiscence.

Consequently, it is difficult to find anyone who recalls much of Vice President Coolidge.

Nevertheless, a few old-timers do recall that he was not considered an especially grim presiding officer of the senate. I have met still older acquaintances of the retiring chief magistrate—neighbors who knew him during the by-gone days at Northampton —who appeared surprised by references to his White House tactfulness.

Mr. Coolidge took over the presidency at an hour of national mourning. His predecessor's death was speedily followed by serious trouble, involving members of the official family he had inherited. He lost a son early in his administration. His nomination in 1924 was exceedingly unpopular with many of his own party leaders. His father died.

Doubtless he was depressed.
Mr. Coolidge is not the man to discuss his griefs and anxieties, but he reflects them in his visage and manner.

He has not an angry temper, but he can be crabbed.

His face, in repose, is as bleak as the rock-bound coast of New England.

By the time he was fairly settled in the executive mansion, he had had his salient characteristics sketched out for him—by others—as they saw him just then—and it was this picture which was nationally accepted as the living image of Calvin Coolidge—no more to be tampered with

Coolidge—yesterday—and today than George Washington's portrait on a silver certificate.

It was not an unfaithful portrait of the four-faced Mr. Coolidge who rode in the inaugural procession four years ago.

It is not much more like the general-looking Mr. Coolidge of today than Mr. Hoover is like him. They have the same general complement of features but very little else in common.

Yet I question the theory that the presidency has changed Mr. Coolidge, fundamentally. Upon his retirement,
I believe the White House is returning its original citizen to Northampton.

Granted To Orville Wright
By Congress

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A quarter of a century after he made the first airplane flight, Orville Wright on Wednesday received from the hands of his country the distinguished flying cross. It was bestowed at a ceremony in the secretary of war office before a small but distinguished company.

A medal was awarded posthumously to Wilbur Wright, his brother, in the great Kitty Hawk adventure in 1903.
The citations that accompanied the medals praised the "vision, perseverance, courage and skill" of the brother-inventors.

"Don't Cough Your Energy Away"

Stop hacking Coughs that wrack your whole system

DOCTORS advise coughs should be checked quickly. They sap vitality—put a terrific strain upon the vital organs. A cough can wrack your whole body—tear at the delicate tissues of the throat—leave the muscles of your chest and stomach sore from sheer exertion. Your health demands that coughs be checked, before exhaustion or serious infection sets in.

At the first sign of a cough or throat irritation, take PERTUSSIN. It helps Nature free the air passages of germ-laden mucus, soothes the irritation and quiets the cough. PERTUSSIN has been prescribed more often for coughs than any other advertised remedy.

PERTUSSIN is safe even for small children and convalescents—a good remedy for "coughs that hang on". It is free from dope—does not upset the stomach and can be taken as often as necessary.

CONNECTICUT TO ERECT STATE OFFICE BUILDING

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 28.—A state office building to cost $2,250,000 will be erected by Connecticut in the near future to relieve congestion in the state house. The legislature has authorized the building and named a commission to attend to the job. The building will set off the state library, now opposite the rear of the state house, and will be the fourth in the group of state structures here, the third being the great state armory west of the capitol.

PHALANX PLANS DINNER-DANCE

Fraternity Decides On March 13 As Date; Meeting Held Last Night

Wednesday, March 13 will be the date on which the members of the New Castle Phalanx fraternity will hold their scheduled dinner-dance, if the plan favorably decided upon at Wednesday night's meeting of the club is carried out. The lady friends of the members will be the special guests of the fraternity on that night. At the meeting last night a discussion also arose regarding the state Y. M. C. A. conference to be held at Pottsville on March 8, 9 and 10. Following the discussion, delegates were chosen and arrangements for transportation to the meetings made. A visitor at the meeting last night was J. O. Trader, a Phalanx man of Uniontown. Mr. Trader was passing through New Castle and happened in upon the members at their meeting. He spent the remainder of the meeting with them. It is announced that further plans for the dinner-dance are to be known later. At work on the details is the committee that Primus Jack Boyles named sometime ago, including Jack Etter, chairman; Floyd Lusk and Alex Samuels.

To Attend Luncheon And Speaking Program At William Penn Hotel

Members of the New Castle branch of the Pittsburgh Life Underwriters' association are in Pittsburgh today attending an important meeting being held in the William Penn hotel there. The members were to attend a luncheon and then hear an address by Ralph G. Engelsman, general agent of the Penn Mutual of New York city. Engelsman will speak on "Making Sales Contacts."

Following the address Mr. Engelsman will give his audience an opportunity to discuss the various phases of selling.

Stinson Fails To Get Plane In Air

(International News Service)

BAY CITY, Mich., Feb. 28.—Eddie Stinson's initial attempt to lift his specially constructed Stinson-Detroit commercial monoplane, the "Sally Sovereign," into the air in an attempt to break the non-refueling endurance flight record came to grief on the ice of Saginaw bay here Wednesday afternoon when the heavily-laden plane, carrying 1047 gallons of gasoline and 50 gallons of oil, failed to gain altitude and was forced to land after skimming over the ice at a height of but a few feet.

No damage was done in the landing, Stinson said. He indicated he would attempt another takeoff within an hour. Randolph Page, noted pilot, accompanied Stinson in the ill-starred attempt.

PENN THEATRE

To Open With Sound Pictures Monday, March 4

Famous R. C. A. Photophone System to Make Its Premiere to New Castle Audiences

Famous motion picture stars will walk and talk, news events of the day will be described in action and in sound, and the music of popular and symphony orchestras will be reproduced with new life-like effect from motion picture screens, when the Penn Theatre inaugurates Monday, March 4th, an entertainment program of the latest sound-motion pictures.

Equipped with the R. C. A. Photophone system of sound reproduction, the Penn Theatre will open a new era of entertainment in New Castle. Through the projection of sound-motion picture films, and pictures with the sound accompaniment, the Penn Theatre hereafter will present leading motion-picture productions that will appeal alike to eye and ear.

Because of the marvelous sensitivity of the R. C. A. Photophone system, representing the latest developments in acoustical reproduction from the screen, all forms of incidental sounds such as street noises, pistol shots, airplane engine sounds, the crash of thunder, the chirping of a canary, the ringing of a bell, knocking on a door, or, in fact, any sounds which may accompany a picture, are reproduced in perfect synchronization with the action on the screen.

"Both the sound reproduction system of the R. C. A. Photophone Inc., as well as the system of sound motion picture recording developed by this company, constitute a new advance in the motion picture art. The radio industry through the laboratories of the Radio Corporation of America and the General Electric Company, and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, has been the chief contributor to the perfection of musical entertainment in the home. The new technique of sound reproduction, so successful in the home, has now been adapted to the requirements of the motion picture theatre by the R. C. A. Photophone system.

"The result is marvelous fidelity in the reproduction of sound and music that gives a perfect illusion of living characters on the stage, and a great advance in the art of sound-motion picture production, because of the superior dramatic effects which this new system permits.

"In the R. C. A. Photophone system sound is recorded direct on the motion picture film by a unique system of sound recording, which consists of a "saw-tooth" or jagged black and white line, termed the "sound track." The sound track runs parallel with the picture, and in reality constitutes a graphic reproduction of music and speech inflections. The picture and sound track are printed on a positive reel of motion picture film which is run through the motion picture projector in the usual manner. Thus, the exact timing of the picture and sound is fixed, and the perfect synchronization is thus achieved."

Export Eggs Must Bear Mark Of Origin

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—England doesn't want to get any "bad eggs" from the United States and those that do make the trans-Atlantic trips must denote their point of origin.

Great Britain has ruled that all eggs entering the United Kingdom must show their place of origin. The law says:

"The indication of origin shall be conspicuously and durably marked in ink on the shell of each imported egg in letters not less than two millimetres in height."

DENVER STUDENTS PLAN OUR POLITICAL PARTY

(International News Service)

DENVER, Feb. 28.—Believing that student affairs have been settled in the past by a small group of leaders, and not by the students themselves, a movement has been started on the University of Denver campus to organize a "Liberal Political Party."

The movement was at first overruled by the student council because they feared it was a radical idea. It was used in putting over selfish plans. On a re-hearing, however, the move was given accord by the council.

"Freehold labor-saving house, 3 beds (one 2 1/2 ft. long).—Adv. in Evening Paper.

That ought to save labor for who ever has to make it.

Damage Suits On File In Explosion At Waynesburg, Pa.

Carmichael's Man Seeks $10,000
Damages; Widow Of Blast
Victim Asks $50,000

Waynesburg, Pa., Feb. 23.—The second damage suit growing out of the explosion at the garage of Pearson Minor in West Waynesburg, last March, was on file in common pleas court here today. Two men were burned to death in the blast.

Edwin E. Miller of Carmichael's, is asking $10,000 damages in an action of trespass filed against Minor. According to the petition Miller had gone to Minor's garage to have his car repaired and while he was waiting an explosion occurred as gasoline was being transferred from a motor truck to the storage tank inside the garage. Miller claims he sustained permanent injuries.

The other suit is against the S. M. Myers Motor company of Waynesburg and Washington, owner of the motor truck used in hauling the gasoline to the garage and J. N. Hazlett of Marianna, gasoline wholesaler. This action was brought by Mrs. Laura W. Gordon, whose husband, John B. Gordon, was fatally burned in the explosion. She is asking $50,000 damages.

THEN THE FIRING STARTED.
After dictating for some time on a new subject, the boss testified, whereupon the stenographer asked, "What is this stuff all about anyway?" To which the boss promptly replied, "I hardly know myself; it's just a lot of bunk—you know something about old Bunker Hill, don't you?"

"Yes," the stenographer shot back, "but this sounds like Bull Run to me."—Pathfinder.

Board Of Appeals Will Meet Fifth Months First Case In Several Months Next Tuesday Afternoon

Board of zoning appeals will have its first case to hear next Tuesday, after a period of two regular monthly meetings during which there was nothing to hear and no meetings held.

The case to be heard on Tuesday afternoon, March 5, at 2:30 o'clock in the city council chamber, will be that of William H. Jones of room 206 St. Cloud building, who has been refused a permit to allow the use of his property at 1215 Moravia street as a place for wrecking automobiles, salvaging the better parts and materials from automobiles which have ceased to be very useful or even ornamental. The permit was refused by the engineer's office because of the fact that Moravia street at that point is a secondary business street and businesses of such character are not permitted in such sections under the zoning regulations.

Mr. Jones in taking the appeal from the decision of the engineer's office, hopes to be granted permission to allow the use of his property for the purpose mentioned previously.

Give freely

When your Children Cry for It

Mothers, who take one simple precaution, are seldom worried. With a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria in the house they can do what their doctor would tell them to do, when baby is fretful, feverish, colicky, constipated or stuffed-up with cold—give a few drops of this pure vegetable, pleasant-tasting preparation. It comforts baby and soothes him to sleep in a jiffy. It's perfectly safe for the youngest infant. Use it freely—and as often as needed, specialists advise. A more liberal dose is all it takes to comfort and relieve older children, when feverishness, bad breath, no appetite, colds, etc., show they need a good purgative. The mark of genuine Castoria is the Fletcher signature on the wrapper. Look for it to avoid imitations.

After the most critical comparisons at the Automobile Shows, Oldsmobile
now stands more than ever

IN THE SPOTLIGHT OF PUBLIC FAVOR

With New Lower Prices

Again the spotlight of public favor singled out Oldsmobile at the great national automobile shows—

—not because of any radical changes in the 1929 Oldsmobile, but for a more vital and fundamental reason—

—because critical comparison with other cars in its field reveals an overwhelming margin of value in favor of Oldsmobile.

Not only have desirable improvements been added, but its price has been reduced.

Already representative of the most progressive engineering, Oldsmobile's big high-compression engine now develops 62 horsepower. Piston-pins are now pressure-lubricated—an engineering feature heretofore characteristic of high-priced cars.

Already distinctive in appearance, its smartness has been enhanced by new headlamps on chromium-plated mountings—by a new cadet-type visor—and by new, sparkling color combinations.

And even greater luxury is revealed inside the car—by deeper, softer seat-cushions—by new, more costly upholstery—by the wonderful new Fisher adjustable front seat that may be instantly regulated to suit the driver's convenience.

See and drive this finer Oldsmobile—and you'll immediately recognize why it is more than ever in the spotlight of public favor.

Took Soda 20 Years for Gas—Stops Now

"For 20 years I took soda for stomach and indigestion, now bottle of Adlerika brought me complete relief."—John H. Hardy.

Adlerika, a simple glycerin, buckthorn bark, saline compound, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and brings out foul matter you would never believe was in your system. This old matter may have poisoned you for months and caused GAS, sour stomach, headache or nervousness.

Try this simple proof: Take any medicine which acts on lower bowel, and you must laxative dose. After your bowels have moved, take Adlerika and in a short time you will be astonished at how much MORE you, old matter and GAS is brought out.

Dr. H. L. Smith, New York, reports "in addition to intestinal cleansing, Adlerika checks the growth of intestinal bacteria."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 20 years practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

Dr. E. Buckett: "After using Adlerika I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

THE RECORD-BREAKING NEW NASH "400"

Of all the New Cars at the Motor Show
Only the New NASH "400" offers these outstanding features as standard equipment
... without extra cost ...

Twin-Ignition Motor
Far more power and speed with greater economy of gasoline than possible with single ignition. At every speed this new Nash Twin-Ignition motor delivers wonderful performance. Instant, alert get-away and surpassing smoothness through the full range of power and speed.

Effort Centralized Chassis Lubrication
Press a pedal and 21 points, including all spring shackles, are oiled automatically and instantly under 100 pounds pressure. Saves both your time and money. One of the greatest features of convenience and economy ever presented to motorists.

Houdaille Shock Absorbers
These Houdaille are especially engineered by Nash to the new "400" with outboard mounting, new to the industry and exclusive to Nash. They are double-acting—softening the action of the springs both when they are depressed and on their rebound and giving you fullest riding ease.

Front and Rear Bumpers
These are the finest bumpers built, exceptionally beautiful and strong. They are integrally designed by Nash to harmonize perfectly with the new "400" Salon body design. As regular equipment at no extra cost, they contribute to the remarkably low Nash price, delivered, in this city.

World's Easiest Driver Control
We challenge the world on this new "400" feature. No where is there another car so marvelously easy to steer and turn and park, or with such effortless clutch action as the new Nash "400". Nash is far ahead of the industry in ease of driver control.

7-Bearing Crankshaft
This is the world's finest practice—expensive but worth it—because of finer performance than is possible with fewer bearings. Each connecting rod is given maximum support by big bearings on both sides. This is the modern type of engineering.

Refreshing Comfort
The deep, soft cushions, formed to the body, provide seats, the roominess of the Nash "400" interior, all help to bring you to the end of every ride refreshed beyond anything in your whole motor car experience. On the longest trip you rest as you ride.

Costly Car Interior Finish
Costly upholstery and luxurious craftsmanship distinguish the new Nash "400" interiors at once from competitive cars. You can see the difference the instant you open the door. Nash "400" interior finish is matched only by the very highest-priced cars.

Head Lights On Annual Auto Show

Little wonder that they did not get the 100 cars into The Cathedral for the show as the Auto Dealers had planned. If a prize were offered to some one who devised a way to get another automobile in the display rooms there would be no winners. Every inch is taken.

About every pillar in the huge Cathedral, smilax is clinging and the effect is one of beauty. Flags, banners, palms, ferns, other flowers, with the smilax aid in making the entire building more beautiful.

When one sees nearly 100 cars at a parking ground, he sees many of the same model. At the show, a look around is surprising, as all of the cars are different models.

Don't try to get in the West door. The entrance is made through the East doorway, you walk through the booth displays, down the West stairway and into the ball room. Then into the main dining room and the wing dining rooms.

Over in the East dining room, the little 1900 horseless carriage sits proudly with the present day models. The little mechanism has but one spark plug which according to spectators seemed to be a good feature.

Do not use soap, polish or wax on the finish, is the dire warning which blares forth from the instruction sheet on the side of the little old car. With regards to the operating of the buggy, you are carefully warned to "Read Instructions Carefully." Evidently they gave you a book which gave you a correspondence course in chauffeur.

The little car has one spark plug, and an engine which would fit into a cowboy hat. It cost $2,000 when new, back at the start of the century.

While you at The Cathedral, take a peep down over the West lawn and see the road way over which all of the cars had to travel in their course to the show rooms. It reminds one of some of the old country bridges with its holes and shakes.

The entire lobby of the building is lined with accessory booths of every nature. They are attractively constructed and introduce the visitors to what is in store in the hall room.

Last year, when the dealers association was yet young, some one suggested that a show be sponsored as was the case in the larger cities. The idea was scoffed by quite a few, but the show went on. The first show astonished the dealers, such was its reception, and there is little doubt but that this show will meet with even greater success.

Warns Women to Check High Blood Pressure

Thousands of women at the changing time of life are in danger of high blood pressure. It is caused by poisonous waste matter accumulating in the system or the weakening of one or more organs. This forces the heart to do more work and raises blood pressure.

The symptoms are dizziness, shortness of breath, head pains, flushed face, nervousness or sleeplessness. High blood pressure must be treated at once for everyone knows it is too dangerous and quick acting to disregard its symptoms.

Norma is a doctor's prescription for high blood pressure that has been used with great success.

Norma contains no habit forming drugs, and works in such a way that it leaves the duty of the over-taxed heart and reduces blood pressure swiftly and surely. Often one bottle brings great relief. Get a bottle of Norma today from any drug store, and free yourself from the symptoms of blood pressure.

Written From Battle.

From Papers of Late
Col. J. S. Dushane

Knoxville, Oct. 8, 1863.
My Dear Wife:—
I have only time to drop you a line that my command is lying at the depot waiting for the cars to go to Morristown and thence after the enemy towards Virginia. We do not go to Chattanooga at this time. General Burnside goes with us, with a strong force to clean out the Rebs, north of this at Bristol and the great salt works.
We go in light marching which means fighting order and expect to be gone two or three weeks and then return here. Our sick and heavy baggage remain here. Jimmy also remains with the quartermaster, Morrison.
No mail yet, though one is expected today, possibly before I get off, at least I hope so. We have been on short rations of letters lately. We are in first rate health. The officers of the Roundhead have presented me with a splendid bag made in lieu of ped the fight and after dark the enemy skedaddled in a hurry. I tell you.

The prisoners we took wanted to know what kind of damned troops we were and when told we were the ninth corps they said they never met such tearing devils before. They said we must be "bullet proof" for the harder they fought, the harder we rushed on. Even their artillery did not check us.
10 Killed, 41 Injured.
We lost ten killed and 41 wounded. I lost one man killed and four wounded in my brigade. Morrison's lost most as it was in the front. Once his line broke but mine checked them and sent them back to their place in a hurry. It was only a momentary thing and I assisted Morrison to reform his line.
Morrison told his men "they need not fear. Colonel Leasure was supporting them; with his brigade and would stand by them until the last man." And on they went again with a yell. The loss of the enemy in killed was 100, the wounded we did not stop to count. That night we slept on our arms where we stopped at dark and started after them early in the morning and followed them 22 miles and then the cavalry pushed on after them and captured and dispersed the whole army, leaving what were not captured, flying fugitives to the mountains of North Carolina.
Shell Strikes Hat.
The nature of the ground over which we fought precluded use of horses and we all dismounted and went on foot. A shell burst just over Gordy's head and mine, and knocked a hole in my good hat. I have been highly complimented for coolness and skill in handling my command.
On arriving at Knoxville I received two dear good letters from you and one from the young daking the 17th and 22nd of September and Bell's the 2nd of October. I suppose there are others on the way somewhere.
Do not be uneasy about us. Burnside holds all he ever did in east Tennessee and mine too. Cumberland Gap is all safe and guarded. None of the Roundheads were captured there or anywhere else. It was part of the 100th Ohio. P. V.'s are too old to be caught napping in a trap.
I presume we might lay here a little while now, unless the enemy makes a move that will cause a corresponding movement on our part. Burnside is very happy over our part of the Blue Springs battle and will do everything in his power for us. He has been ordered to send us to Chattanooga but he will not do so if he can help it.
Talks of Japan.
It would be little short of slaughter of the innocents if we were to abandon this country again to the "tender" horrors of rebel rule. Parson Brownlow arrived with his family last night. The boys are of the opinion that as there seems to be a difficulty between our government and Japan, the ninth will be "sent to Japan next."
A general order has been issued to recruit the ninth corps in east Tennessee and two commissioned officers and ten enlisted men from each regiment have been appointed to open recruiting offices and fill up the regiment with east Tennesseans. Major Cline and Captain Jeff Hamilton are appointed from the Roundheads and their recruiting station "Knoxville."
I think it may work well. The men make splendid officers but they have no fit material for officers and being put into the old regiments will officered will soon become as good as the old soldiers. We do not hope for any drafted men from home and would rather have east Tennessee volunteers than "conscripts" from the dens of Pennsylvania Copperheads.
Hear Curtain Wins.
I hear rumors today that Captain Curtain has received a dispatch informing that Pennsylvania has gone heavily for Curtin for which, if true, I devoutly give thanks. On election day returning from the battle of Blue Springs the Pennsylvania regiments in the ninth corps took a vote expressive of their sentiment which resulted as follows:
The 45th Pa. Vols 214 for Curtin, 14 for Copperhead; the 48th Pa. Vols unanimous for Curtin; the 50th Pa. Vols, unanimous for Curtin; 100th Pa. Vols, 214 for Curtin, 3 for Copperhead. These are all old regiments, worn down in long service and many battles. Many of the members are absent, sick, but a vote of the whole regiment would result exactly in the same proportion.
We know what we are fighting for and we know that the Copperheads are the most dangerous enemies our country has. May the curse of our country's God pursue them to dishonorable graves and the black and begrimed grandfather of all traitors sit crosslegged on their tombstones and snigger over them.
State Maintains Integrity.
Here, now I feel better. If I have not a vote I have had a swear at them. Oh, how I hope the good news is true and that my state has maintained her integrity to the union by her vote for Curtin and that good true man, old friend Judge Agnew.
I have just learned that Tommy Watson has obtained a furlough and starts home tomorrow. If so I will send this with him and get him to call on you if he can carry them you might send our fur collars with him, though we may not need them if we go south to Charleston or Japan.
Rev. Mr. B. has just this moment arrived after being 13 days on the route. He looks well and is quite pleasant and affable. He came to my headquarters first on his way to the regiment.
I will write again soon and so will the boys. Dear love to you all and my own dear ones and may God bless you.
Affectionately your husband,

LOCAL WOMAN QUICKLY RELIEVED AFTER THREE YEARS OF TORTURE

Used Many Kinds of Stomach Medicines Without Relief. Did Not Realize She Had Catarrh of the Stomach. Two Bottles of World's Tonic Brought Wonderful Results.

Stopped Gas From Forming in Stomach and Banished Heavy, Dull Feeling in Front and Back of Head and Put Entire System in Good Condition

"I know there are thousands of people taking medicines for stomach troubles when they really need World's Tonic for Catarrh."
Thus spoke a young woman of this city to the World's Tonic man. While in Paisley's this young woman heard the World's Tonic representative explaining the merits of World's Tonic to a sufferer of Catarrh and volunteered this information.
"In my opinion there are a great many people, perhaps thousands, just like I was. I know from experience because I kept taking all kinds of stomach medicines for three years and never had any idea that was really suffering from catarrh of the stomach until I read the World's Tonic booklet. It describes almost entirely how I was feeling. Nothing I ate agreed with me, gas formed and my heart beat so fast it was hard to get my breath. I had a heavy, dull feeling in front and back of my head most every day. My stomach felt as if it had fire

Brain Tuberculosis

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Feb. 28.—The complete recovery of 7-year-old Peter Moran of Worcester from a severe case of tuberculosis of the brain scored another victory for science.
Two years ago the youngster was brought to the Peabody Home for Crippled Children unable to walk, hear or speak. But after definitely planned treatment by means of heliotherapy the cure was effected.

According to Dr. Gerald Hoeft, pediatric and general director of the institution the case represented the first time to his knowledge that a condition definitely diagnosed as tuberculosis of the brain was cured in response to definitely planned treatment.
Sunshine treatments were begun with exposure of 15 minutes for the first few months. These were gradually increased and at the same time gradual improvement in the condition of little Peter was noted.

Dr. Harvey S. Cushing, brain specialist and consulting surgeon at the Home was given credit for the cure by officials of the institution.

SPRING SUITS

Have you a good imagination? Then think of a warm worsted fabric that is very thin, about the usual light summer weight — and then you will probably be wrong! For these New Shark Skin Suits are different altogether, but not too different. Busy, busy men who somehow found time to play a little — introduced this fabric to Florida this winter. Shark Skin Suits are springish looking, but have a comfortable warmth for chilly spring evenings. University Men in exceptionable numbers have already swung to this new fabric. Do not misunderstand we said "university men".... for Shark Skin is a thoroughbred material, and not a style gone "College Boy".... it is a fabric for "University Men" and not their imitators. These Sun-tan, Grenadier-blue and Scots-grey Shark Skin are for the man who feels he is entitled to a $50.00 suit for spring.

The perennial return of spring is the annual signal for Mr. Man to infuse a touch of color into his furnishings. This year is no exception, but hues and patterns will be cheerfully subdued rather than flamboyant. Monochromatic effects, where many hues of the same color are used, will predominate. Contrasting color schemes will not hold for this 1929 spring. Cluster stripes in colored shirts are good, ($2.00 and up). Hats whose crowns taper severely and have curled brims hold forth ($5 to $10). And Ties of large design rather than small patterns will be in the spot light. AKRON, Feb. 28.—"Hell Week" as far as students at Akron University are concerned, is a thing of the past. The traditional wooden paddle is the only instrument of institutional terror to the freshmen pledge of college fraternities that is expected to survive.
It was announced by the local chapter that all rough stuff has been eliminated and in its place a study of the history of Greek letter fraternities, their ideals and traditions has been established.
And the paddle is destined for only moderate use, being scheduled to go into action only when the pledge violates fraternity rules or regulations. Leading the way toward the elimination of bolsterous and strenuous initiations is Phi Delta Theta, oldest fraternity at Akron University.

Reserve Officers Have Session Here

Monthly Meeting Of Shenango Chapter Held At Elks' Home

COL. ANDERSON IS GUEST OF HONOR

Monthly dinner meeting of the Shenango Valley Chapter, Reserve Officers Association of the United States, held last evening at the Elks club was featured by a record attendance of members, the largest number of members in many months being in attendance.

Col. Anderson Guest
The honor guest of the evening was Colonel T. M. Anderson of Pittsburgh, chief of staff of the 99th Division, who with Lieutenant Colonel J. P. Leaf of Rochester, Pa., were speakers of the evening.

Major Lewis E. Burnside of Sharon, president of the Chapter presided at the business session held following the excellent dinner served at 6:30 o'clock.

At the business session, Captain A. A. Smith of Sharon, member of the Chapter's committee on the annual convention at Conneaut Lake, May 30-31 and June 1-2, reported that progress was being made for the affair. He asked for a conference of the members of the local committee following the meeting last night. The members of which are Captain J. P. Gregory, Grove City, Captain W. F. Jackson, New Castle, Lieutenant C. E. Sowash of Beaver County and Lieutenant Paul A. Welsh, New Castle, and himself.

To Meet March 23
It was decided that the next meeting be held Thursday, March 23 at the Elks club with Major C. N. Sawyer of Harrisburg, chief of the Signal Corps of the 99th Division, as the guest and principal speaker. Captain R. C. Gregory of Grove City, was named by Major Burnside to have charge of the next meeting.

First Lieutenant Pat J. Dempsey, secretary of the chapter, called attention to the death of Lieutenant John H. Strothers of this city, a member of the reserve, and the fact that members of the reserve in uniform were desired as pallbearers on Friday afternoon. Lieutenant S. J. Kramer, Lieutenant Joseph Cowan, Jr., Major L. E. Burnside, Captain M. L. Craig and Lieutenant L. C. Barnhart volunteered their services. The chapter also unanimously authorized the sending of a floral tribute on behalf of the chapter to the Strothers home.

Major C. E. Imbrie then called attention to the fact that he and Captain W. F. Fulton of this city had been appointed to the Dubois state convention on a committee to revise the state constitution and by-laws and asked if the chapter had any suggestions.

Major Burnside and Captain A. E. Smith then called attention to the fact that the Sharon Bugle and Drum Corps of the American Legion was going to the inaugural of President Hoover next Monday in two pullman cars and that there were still five or six reservations, which could be secured by people here.

Captain M. L. Craig called attention to the weekly conferences held each Thursday at his office and urged the officers to attend if possible.

Col. Leaf Speaks

Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Leaf then gave a most interesting talk on the Engineer Corps of the Army. He said all branches were necessary but that it was the engineers that must prepare the way. He said that the Engineers were the oldest branch of the army using the same methods with which it started. He enlisted in the World War at fifty years of age and went to France and saw active service and told much of interest concerning his experiences there. He said the engineers planned to care for the World War veterans for five million soldiers if necessary.

Colonel Anderson, chief of staff of the 99th division, then spoke, telling how this year, the reserve officers were to train the C. M. T. C. units and urged all the officers to be prepared to take their part. He said that he wanted this division to make a fine showing. He also urged the need of modern uniforms by the officers.

Lieutenant S. J. Kramer also spoke a few words concerning the need of greater interest in forestry in this country and what it would mean in the future to the people of this country.

Those Present

Those in attendance at the meeting last night were as follows: Lt. Col. J. P. Gregory, Major C. N. Sawyer, Greenlee, Field Representative, American Red Cross; Ralph L. Montag, First Lieutenant Infantry; R. C. Mah, First Lieutenant Infantry; Walter K. Smith, First Lieutenant Infantry; Maurice Reswick, First Lieutenant Infantry; J. L. Reed, First Lieutenant Infantry; D. A. McQuiston, Lt. Col. 305 Infantry; S. J. Kramer, First Lieutenant Infantry; W. F. Jackson, Captain, Dental; J. R. Cepovi, Major, Medical; C. E. Imbrie, Major, Medical; Melvin L. Craig, Captain F. A. (D. O. L.); Lewis E. Burnside, Major, Engineers; A. A. Smith, Captain, Infantry; T. M. Anderson, Colonel, Infantry; (D. O. L.); J. P. Leaf, Lt. Col. Engineers; Raymond Swenk, Captain, Engineers; Hubert Davis, Second Lieutenant Engineers; John D. Kennedy, First Lieutenant, Finance; Lawrence Thompson, First Lieutenant, Engineers; Paul A. Welsh, Second Lieutenant, F. A.; Roland N. Hairs, Second Lieutenant, Infantry; Sylvester J. Kramer, Second Lieutenant, F. A.; Joseph Cowan, Jr., Second Lieutenant, Infantry; Harry Solberg, Air Service; L. C. Barnhart, Second Lieutenant, Signal; R. C. Gregory, Captain, Engineers; W. G. Smith, Major, Engineers.

ENDED STOMACH TROUBLE AND OTHER AILMENTS

Although 73, He Feels Like Different Man, Since Using Ten Herbs.

"I feel like a different man since using Ten Herbs," was the recent statement of Mr. Robert P. Small, Route 4, Greensburg, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street.

MR. ROBERT P. SMALL

New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this popular herbal medicine to crowds of men and women.

"My health had been poor for a long time," continued Mr. Small, who is 73 years of age and employed at the Keystone mines. "I felt distressed after eating. My stomach would fill with gas and cause my heart to palpitate. I would become short of breath and weak. My appetite usually was very poor, and I was afraid to eat, even when hungry, because of the distress that would follow. I would have severe pains in my stomach and belch a great deal. Head-times, there were sharp, shooting pains in my back. I tired easy and did not sleep well."

"I read about Ten Herbs in the paper, and started using your medicine. I am in good health now. My appetite has improved, and I can eat without suffering with gas or pains in my stomach. Headaches and dizzy spells have disappeared. The pains in my back are gone. I get good restful sleep. I do not get so tired, as I have more strength. My bowels are more regular than they were. I have better health than I have had for a long time. Ten Herbs gave me such good results that I do not hesitate to recommend your medicine to others."

If you are suffering with disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, you owe it to yourself to get Ten Herbs a trial. This new liquid medicine must have exceptional merits, or so many persons of this section would not be using and recommending it.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Don't Neglect a Cold Now, is Doctor's Advice

Don't neglect any cold nowadays. Colds are so prevalent, and in a weakened condition, you are so susceptible to more serious troubles.

When you find you are catching cold, take care to keep the bowels open. That's the first precaution every doctor advises. That's the way to avoid the congestion which makes you feverish, achy, half-sick, miserable.

Millions know the quick way to open the bowels, keep them active, is with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Pepsin. Every second day, someone somewhere is going into a drugstore to get a bottle of this splendid medicine, made from simple laxative herbs and pepsin by the formula Doctor Caldwell found so effective during his 47 years' medical practice.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Pepsin is mild and gentle in its action but it is promptly effective on the most obstinate constipation. Containing neither narcotics or opiates, it is safe for the tiniest baby. Children like it and take it gladly.

For colds, fevers, biliousness, indigestion, headaches, heartburn, nausea, bad breath, loss of sleep—any troubles caused by poor digestion or faculty evacuation, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Pepsin will prove a blessing. It's overwhelming success and popularity is based on real merit—on one satisfied user telling another. Your drugstore sells the generous bottles on a positive money-back guarantee to give satisfaction.

A noted chemist says that a gas has been discovered which is too terrible even to be used in war. Probably the bootleggers can make something out of it.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

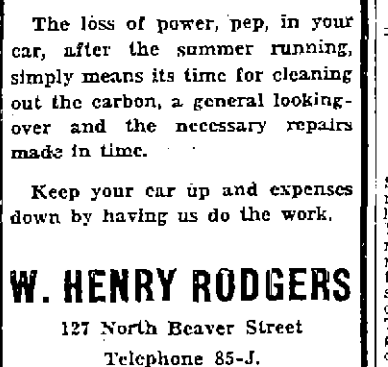

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil.

No griping is the "key-note" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them, 15c, 30c, 50c.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Now that the Sharkey-Stribling thing is settled, the fans can get back to the more serious business of looking in on what teams are doing in the spring training camp. Mr. Sharkey is undoubtedly satisfied and the young Mr. Stribling, while being rather down in the lip perhaps over the decision still has cause for some congratulation when he looks at the entry in the bank book.

One can expect an ultimatum most any day now to the effect that Mr. Sharkey considers himself the champion of the world. Which is all right in the department, but may cause some supercilious chuckles among the brothers who feel that Jack is still a nice boy, a credit to his native city and the United States navy and other organizations to which he claims affiliation but as a champion he retains all the titles listed above.

There are other matters of more importance. Primarily, will the Warner brothers get Fere. Diefuss to sign on the dotted line for the plasters they claim they are worth. A matter calling for serious conferences around the table, deep thought and all that sort of thing.

Or the inaugural of Herbert Hoover. Now there's a subject. Do you expect to be one of a million human souls who will crowd the Capitol city next Monday to see a rather stout, pleasant faced gentleman raise his hand and agree to support, uphold, and defend the constitution of the United States?

Down in Beaver county they are all aglow. The Lincoln club one of the old time Republican marching clubs of this section will have 150 in line and while they come from a neighboring county we can still feel gratified at the honor shown them. Pennsylvania will have the position of honor in the parade and the Lincoln club will have the position of honor in the Pennsylvania delegation. It will be the first marching club in the line in the inaugural parade.

Senate Stages Weird Half-Night Session, Little Accomplished

Seventieth Congress Staggers To Finish Line March 4th Under Filibuster Load

Five Important Measures Get Attention; Senator Dill Active

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Wracked by filibusters, its program disrupted and important legislation threatened with defeat, the dying Seventieth Congress convulsively staggered along today toward its constitutional demise March 4.

With two filibusters successful, a third abandoned and at least three more yet to be faced, the senate met at 11 o'clock this morning to take up its legislative cudgels where it left off at 2:40 a. m. after a continuous session of fifteen hours and forty minutes.

Easy Program In House
The house had a much easier program facing it. This included the Jones bill, levying a five year penalty on bootleggers, the Edge resolution for a Nicaraguan Canal survey and conference reports on the same bill, billion dollars worth of appropriation bills.

In its long session, which lasted half the night, the senate had a dramatic arrest of absent senators, fight return were read on the floor, arguments were held galore, blankets were issued to senators for naps in the cloakrooms and theater parties entertained in the galleries.

Results of Session
1. Abandonment of the house re-employment bill, awarding victory to a filibuster launched by Southern senators under Harrison of Mississippi.

2. Adoption of resolutions, extending the senate inquiry into Indian affairs, awarding victory to a filibuster conducted by Senators (R) of North Dakota, and Wheeler (D) of Montana.

3. Enactment of a filibuster, conducted by Senator Dill (D) of Washington aided by insurgents against a $50,000 item in the $100,000,000 second deficiency appropriation bill for the Nicaraguan Canal survey.

4. Adoption of the conference report on the $350,000,000 naval appropriation bill which included fifteen new cruisers.

5. Agreement by the senate public lands committee to send all evidence on the Salt Creek leases to the department of justice for investigation and criminal prosecutions, if it seems fit.

Dill Abandons Fight
The dramatic session ended when Dill abandoned his fight and an agreement was reached to vote on the deficiency bill at 1:15 o'clock this morning. Administration leaders had threatened to keep the senate in session throughout the night, had ordered absentees arrested and watched blankets distributed so senators could sleep in cloakrooms.

A little earlier, however, the second deficiency bill was enacted, and of all items transferred into it from the first deficiency bill. By this action, the battle over the $24,000,000 appropriation for prohibition enforcement was restored to the first deficiency bill along with $102,000,000 of other items.

A second filibuster will threaten the bill, because of the house action in rejecting the McKellar senate amendment, ordering publicity on all income tax refunds. Facing two filibusters, the fate of the bill is uncertain.

A one-man filibuster likewise will be launched against the resolution extending the life of the Federal Radio Commission. Senator Copeland (D) of New York, blocked action on it several times in the past week and threatened to fight it in the future. A petition, invoking closure to shut off debate on this bill, has been circulated and may be adopted to smash Copeland's filibuster.

Senator Dill held the floor from 8:45 p. m. until adjournment at 2:40 a. m., although frequently interrupted.

City Water O. K.

Richards Says

No Complaint Made Other Than That It Had "Dark Color"

Howard Richards, superintendent, New Castle Water company today visited city council chambers and conferred with Walter V. Tyler, councilman. Recently Councilman Reeves said the water is "dark colored."

Mr. Richards explained that the taste of chlorine is prevalent when the temperature is at 34 but people can feel sure that the water is safe to drink.

When water is not used a sediment gathers in the iron pipes and where there are "dead ends" they will be flushed.

The city health doctor keeps a check on the water and it is reported to be O. K. Persons should not go to wells and springs for water which has not been tested, for in many cases it is contaminated.

STREET CARS APPEAR

IN NEW COLOR OF PAINT

There is another very noticeable evidence of an early spring in the city at the present time and that is street cars of the local lines which are now appearing in new coats of paint. A brown color is being used instead of the green color that has formed the color of the greater part of the cars. The change in color is attracting considerable attention.

Worthless Stock

Deal Is Charged

Philadelphia Attorney Is Held In Utah Lead Company Project

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Michael Barnett, local attorney, was free in $1,500 bail today pending a further hearing on March 7 on charges of being implicated in a worthless stock deal said to involve $1,000,000.

Barnett was arrested by postal authorities as the alleged head of the million dollar Utah Lead company stock concern which was incorporated under the laws of Delaware. Barnett denied any connection with the firm and asked for time to prove his assertion. His statement was contradicted by Assistant U. S. Attorney Irving Stetler of New York.

Stetler charged the prisoner pocketed $72,000 in cash in connection with the Utah Lead company's stock sales. He asserted Barnett and seven others are under indictment in New York. Barnett was arrested February 16 on a warrant charging use of the mails in a scheme to defraud. The hearing was held before U. S. Commissioner Patterson.

Stock of the Utah firm sold for as high as $7 a share through tipster sheets and false merger rumors, Stetler said, when it really was worth only ten cents a share. The firm did have a lead mine but the lode petered out years ago, the prosecutor added.

EMLYN LEWIS IS

NOW IMPROVING

Emlyn Lewis of South Mill street, who was seriously injured a short time ago in a railroad accident at Youngstown, underwent an operation Tuesday of this week at St. Elizabeth's hospital in that city and his condition is now reported as being much improved. Hopes of his recovery from the injuries are now held by attending physicians.

Shenango River

Remains High

The waters of the Shenango river have receded but little since yesterday noon, although the Neshannock creek, at noon, had gone down considerably. According to E. F. Johnson, in charge of the pump station of the New Castle Water company, the Shenango yesterday was at its highest stage this winter when it registered 12.4 feet above the zero mark at the intake at the station. Today at noon it registered 12.1 while but a few hours before it recorded a flat 12 feet.

Although the Shenango is at the highest stage this winter no danger was expressed today because the measurement at the pump station is considerably different than the readings that the city takes at the West Washington street bridge. It was estimated that the Shenango could stand six or eight feet of water before a flood danger might arise.

Civic Theatre Guild

Prepares For Play

The members of the Civic Theatre Guild met last night at the home of Miss Evelyn Pearson on Moody avenue and rehearsed the parts of "Duke," the play to be presented by the guild on April 11-12 in the Senior High school auditorium for the Garden club. The proceeds will be used in furthering the Wilmington highway "Road of Remembrance."

At the meeting last night it was announced that Mrs. W. C. Kennedy of Neshannock avenue, had offered a prize of $5 to be given to the student of the Commercial Department of the Senior High school who produces the best advertisement for the play. E.

P. Patterson, assistant principal of the Senior High school will supervise the contest and a committee of considerable different than the readings that the city takes at the West Washington street bridge. It was estimated that the Shenango could stand six or eight feet of water before a flood danger might arise.

Another meeting of the guild for the rehearsal of the parts will be held at the Pearson home on Friday evening.

The Condition Equalizer Assures Realistic Reception.

The Condition Equalizer, included with Model 81-D gives three-step control of tone quality and compensates for variations of broadcast reception. Also permits adjustment of the reproducer for most realistic rendition of the particular entertainment. Voice is more natural on the "high" setting while organ selections are more pleasing on the "low" setting.

A Beautiful Dynamic Table Reproducer With Astonishing Tone Quality

TONE QUALITY!—Every note from the lowest to the highest—the big bass tuba or the coloratura soprano—they all come over with astonishing fidelity.

The Newcombe-Hawley Model 81-D Dynamic Reproducer re-creates radio programs with such realism that a new joy and pleasure awaits you. If you are now using an old type speaker, hear a Model 81-D on your own set. You will be amazed at the improvement it will make. The beautiful walnut table combines set and reproducer in one attractive unit.

Hoover Inaugural Is First Ever Attended By Two Ex-Presidents

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—For the first time in the history of the republic two former presidents will be present at the inaugural ceremonies. They are Calvin Coolidge and William Howard Taft, 27th president and now chief justice of the supreme court of the United States. The inauguration of Herbert Hoover, it is believed will be the largest observance since that of Taft in 1905 and preparations are being made to use every modern method of dissemination except television, to give the nation and the world instant pictures of the ceremony.

While the capital is arranging to accommodate a hundred thousand inaugural visitors, press and photographic bureaus, national radio chains, telephone and telegraph companies, railroads and airplane transport companies are making completion to carry the news of the inauguration to every hamlet of the United States and every nation of the globe.

Radio and Talks. Sound pictures will for the first time record both the appearance and the voice of an incoming president and vice president. New York and Philadelphia are to hear and see the inaugural ceremony in their uptown movie palaces a few hours after the occurrence. The same week every city in the country will have the same opportunity.

One of the chief spectacle features of the three-day ceremony outside of the inaugural parade itself will be an air parade led by the dirigible Los Angeles and the army endurance plane Question Mark. Such air heroes as Hawkes, Goebel, Stinson, Rickenbacker and perhaps Lindbergh himself will take part in the air maneuvers.

Washington citizens have raised $10,000 to be used for expenses and entertainment. This sum will be amplified through receipts from the sale of parade stand seats, souvenir programs and souvenir medals. Extra Police. Congress has appropriated $27,000 for extra policing, emergency traffic regulations and public comfort stations. The capital's corps of plain clothes men will be augmented by 250 men from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Special information booths will be established at strategic points from the Union Station into all sections of the city.

Another feature of the three day celebration which attracts great attention is the charity ball the night of March 4 at which Vice President Curtis and Mrs. Gann diplomatic and cabinet ministers will attend. Proceeds of this affair expected to be about $40,000 will be given to charity.

Another affair of great popularity in former years is the governors' reception which will be held the night of March 3 at the Hotel Willard. More than 30 state executives with their official escorts are anticipated for this function.

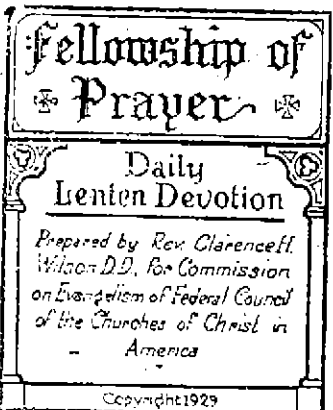

Besides the parade which will approximate four miles in length the rank and file of visitors will be entertained by two air circuses on succeeding afternoons while the crack Third Cavalry of Fort Myer, Va., will exhibit its horsemanship.

Indians and Cowboys. On the Hoover Birthplace Special that will come from West Branch, Ia., will be J. W. Reeder, 92 of Tipton, Iowa. Citizen Reeder twice voted for Lincoln and for every national Republican ticket since. He will be Mr. Hoover's official "Hat Holder" during the administration of the oath.

Indians and cowboys from the Dakotas and from Oklahoma, state ranching clubs, fife and drum corps, former government associates, all will be in Washington to take part in the parade and other ceremonies.

rectly behind the chief executive's party and escort. New York's thousand member Hoover-Curtis club affecting the wide, black sombreros will march along with a Texas delegation of 500 from the Lone Star state while several hundred are expected from the Old Dominion.

Topic for the Week
"LENT AND MY HOME"

Memory Verse for Thursday
"And shall talk of them when thou sittest in thy house" (Deuteronomy 6:7). (Read: Deuteronomy 6:6 to 12.)

MEDITATION: Here if anywhere is to be found the secret of the Jewish people and their remarkable history. Their religion was founded on the home. Its primary observances were domestic not public. It was the subject of conversation in the family circle. So it was made familiar to the children from their earliest years and they never could forget. By contrast how tedious were on the subject of religion and especially in our homes! Silence may easily be interpreted as indifference, or at least as a confession that religion though necessary is not interesting. I must see to it that this thing which is of the greatest concern to me shall enter more into my talk at table and by the fireside.

PRAYER: Almighty Father by whose compassionate care even the solitary are set in families, I pray that Thy presence may not be hid in the seclusion of my home. In the sacred intimacy of the family make me a faithful witness to the hope that is in me, and to the beauty of my most holy faith. Amen.

EDENBURG

Bobbie Biddle, who was hurt in a coasting accident, is reported to be improving slowly.

High water has surrounded the home of several in this vicinity. Those hit hardest were Harry W. Park, Forrest Raub and Mrs. Emerson Morrow. The Raub family was forced to leave home on account of not being able to fire their heater. Canned fruit in all the cellars is floating around on the water.

Mrs. Minnie Mangham and daughter Jessie were New Castle visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Biddle of New Castle, called at the home of his brother Ray Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coats of New Castle, were Edenburg visitors Sunday.

CONFEDERATE REUNION TO BE HELD JUNE 3

(International News Service) CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 28.—The formal opening of the Confederate reunion has been moved up on day to commemorate the birthday of Jefferson Davis.

The reunion will open June 3, instead of June 4, the date originally set. A feature of the opening day's program will be a ceremony marking the spot where the president of the Confederacy stood when he received the message announcing the assassination of President Lincoln.

Asks For Damages From Mercer County

Claims Course Of Stream Through His Farm Changed;
Other Mercer News

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 28.—On an average of 200 damage claims are filed here each year on which viewers are asked to award damages. Of the many that have been given a hearing that filled here today is perhaps the most peculiar in text yet posted. Viewers are asked to award damage to Leverett Bissell, a farmer of Ferry township due to the change in the course of the Little Shenango River which the claimant announces flows through his farm.

The change in the course of the stream made necessary when a new bridge was erected this past summer is alleged by Bissell to have spoiled the watering place for his stock and also to have cut up his land so that part of it is not accessible for farming as it was prior to this time. C. P. Clarke of Greenville, J. W. Nelson and J. M. Miller of Mercer are the board of viewers selected for this work. The bridge was carried out Certificates have already been issued to 15 notary publics of Mercer county for a three year term since the first of the year announces Recorder W. M. Jones in whose office the oath of office is taken and the certificates recorded.

Greene township has asked for 6 and Cooling township 5 additional mills to their road tax fixed by law at 10 mills.

There are 42 families under the care of the Mother Pension Board of Mercer county at the present time. At the last meeting of the board Mrs. Sylvia Yeager of Stoneboro was sworn in to replace on the board Mrs. Minnie Houser of that city. Miss Pritchard who is of the state welfare association was present and discussed food values and explained how mothers should cook for their children.

The customary health programs will be run through the Mercer county schools during the month of May it is made known today at the office of the health bureau.

For the last two years these programs which are devoted entirely to promulgation of improved public health have been given in all the larger schools of the county.

The work has been sponsored by women of the county with Mrs. Lawrence Ostrye of Mercer in charge. The plans for the program of this year will be no different from that of previous events. Work will start very soon making ready for these programs.

The Reznor Manufacturing Company of Mercer start operations very soon on making up their 1929 line. Sales of the company gas heaters has been exceptionally good.

They are making now at the plant 75 different styles of gas heaters.

OSTROVSKY'S SON AT 64 IN POVERTY NEAR PARIS

(International News Service) PARIS, Feb. 28.—Alexander Ostrovsky, Russian dramatist, born in Moscow in 1823, once wrote a famous play, "Poverty No Crime." His son, now sixty-four years old, has recently been found in dire poverty at Parc St. Maur, a few miles from the capital.

Until a few months ago he had been able to eke out a bare existence by doing some translation work in a factory in Paris. Then he lost his sight and Father Alsow, a Russian priest found him lying on a bare bed in a little shed, slowly starving to death.

Nerve-ridden...dogged by sleepless nights...then, at 76, she found relief— without medicine

Her "nerves" were a family tradition—she needed medicine to get to sleep. Then, at the age of 76, relief came to Mrs. Sarah Van Sickle. Read this remarkable story, as told by her grand-daughter:

"Whenever Grandmother arrives for a visit she brings a can of her favorite beverage. Grandma must have her morning caffeine on the dot. Grandma's 'nerves' are a family tradition. She had 'jumping spells'; she dreaded 'poor nights' and always needed quieting pills if her first sound sleep was disturbed.

"But last April, when Grandma arrived, she announced, 'No, sir, I don't use caffeine any more!' We were stunned until Grandma explained.

"Last winter my nerves simply went to pieces. I doctored and doctored, without results. Finally, a new doctor ordered me to drop caffeine. I told him I never could start the day without it—for 55 years I had been drinking it—but he said it was high time to stop.

"I was miserable until someone suggested Postum. I've been using it ever since. It has such a tasty flavor. It has been a substitute for caffeine, and a substitute for medicine, too. During the last few months, I have taken less medicine, my food digests better, and I sleep better than I have in years."

You'll like Postum for its flavor, too—a rich, distinctive flavor millions prefer. Postum is made of roasted whole wheat and bran. A drink that contains no trace of any artificial stimulant—nothing to fray nerves, to repel sleep, to disturb digestion.

Twenty Representatives Have Failed To Sponsor Legislation Thus Far

Representative Witkin Of Philadelphia Leads With 111 Bills Introduced

More Than 1,300 Measures Have Been Placed In House Hopper Thus Far

By ROBERT F. GORMAN.

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Feb. 23.—Only twenty members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives have failed to introduce bills thus far in this session, according to a study made of the more than 1,300 bills already sponsored.

To Representative Witkin, Philadelphia, goes the honor of having introduced more bills than any other member this session. The Philadelphia member has 111 measures to his credit, but a big majority of them are bills repealing existing statutes found to be obsolete as a result of the survey made by the salary survey commission.

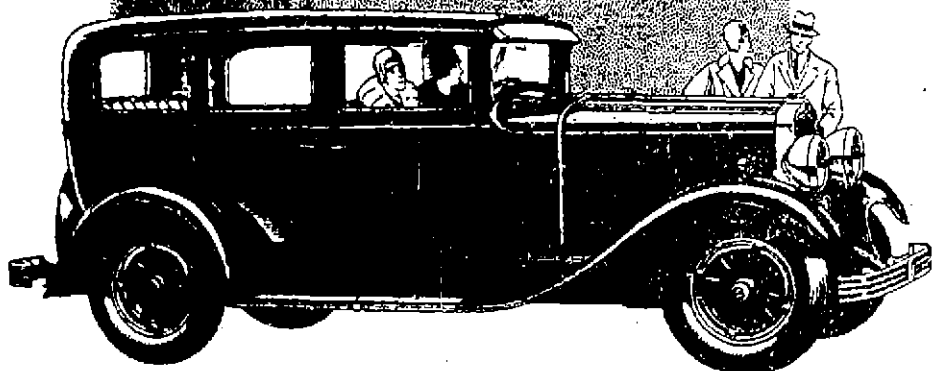

Next to Representative Witkin is Representative Williams, Tioga, with 25 bills and then in order is Representative Maters, Allegheny, and Representative Sterling, Philadelphia. Maters has introduced 24 bills. Sterling has 23 to his credit, among them the important bills creating the de-

On March 16, the B. & O. duckpin men and women's league will play and on March 21, the A. S. & T. P. of Pittsburgh will play the Shenango Tin duckpin tossers.

Bowling is going over big in New Castle at present and in April the National Radiator of Johnstown will come here to clash with Ralph Boiling's National Radiator team.

Last year New Castle defeated Johnstown and with the victory came a trophy and the local plant hopes to retain the cup.

Intended Groom Stages Shooting; Girl Is Wounded

Enraged At Finding His Bride-To-Be With Another, Ohio Man Opens Fire

GIRL IN HOSPITAL, SHOT FIVE TIMES

(International News Service)
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Feb. 28.—Instead of being married today, Thomas Weekley, 24, of Pownatan, the bridegroom to have been, is in the county jail, and Miss Winifred Ramsey, 22, of Jacobsburg, the bride to have been, is in a critical condition at her home suffering bullet wounds alleged to have been inflicted by Weekley.

According to police, who have charged Weekley with shooting the girl, the man was thrown into a fit of jealousy last night when he found his fiancée in the company of another man. It is said the meeting occurred in front of the girl's home. Weekley is alleged to have drawn a weapon and opened fire.

Instead of taking his fiancée to a revival service last night, police say they learned, Weekley listened in on the Stribling-Sharkey fight. Miss Ramsey is said to have been escorted to the services by Charles Gates, 24, of Beaverville. As Weekley arrived at the Ramsey home after the broadcast, Miss Ramsey and Gates also arrived.

Weekley is said to have pulled a revolver and started toward them. Miss Ramsey ran toward the house and Weekley opened fire, police allege. Weekley escaped, but was arrested this morning.

Stinson-Page Are Delayed By Fog

Michigan Fliers Held On Ground Today By Heavy Fog Over Saginaw Bay

(International News Service)
BAY CITY, Mich., Feb. 28.—Eddie Stinson's attempt to set a new world's non-refueling endurance record for airplanes was delayed today by a thick fog which settled over Saginaw Bay where Stinson's plane, the "Sally Sovereign," was poised on the ice, and prevented the scheduled takeoff.

An airplane from Saginaw swooped over the fog-obscured bay at 7:40 a. m. today, and led early watchers to believe the Stinson flight was under way. The report received general circulation.

Stinson announced his intention of taking off, with Randolph Page as co-pilot, as soon as the fog lifted.

HEALTH MAY MAKE OR MAR MARRIAGES

Absolute frankness about health is a requisite of a successful marriage. No one who has a serious mental or physical defect or a record of past ailments, such as tuberculosis or heart disease, should marry without revealing the fact to his prospective mate. To do so constitutes a fraud and unions thus based on deception can be annulled.

Dr. Ira S. Wile and Mary Day Wile make these assertions at the beginning of an article on marriage and health in the March issue of Hygiene.

One cannot say that no person should marry who is not in a state of perfect health because some of the happiest and most beautiful marriages start with the seeming handicap of illness or physical defect.

An absolute bar to marriage, however, is acute venereal disease. These ailments are curable if treated early and regularly and the responsibility for entering matrimony while one is a source of contagion is too great for any person to take. It is forbidden by law in some states and should be in all, these authors believe.

Many physiologic difficulties of marriage have their roots in physical disabilities. Irritability, impatience and lack of composure, instead of indicating that love is dead, may mean that the irritable person has chronic appendicitis, ulcer of the stomach, sexual disability or some form of gland deficiency.

Health, then, is at the very core of marital adjustments. It is intimately concerned in every aspect of marriage, in the social activities of the partners, in their financial arrangements and in their sex life. Health in marriage is reflected in harmony and in beauty of living.

Woman Hit And Knocked Down

Clarence W. Forbes of Rigby Post Office reported to the police Wednesday that he was driving south on Jefferson street at the south end of the city when a woman walked out in front of his machine and was knocked down. Mr. Forbes took the woman, whose name he did not secure, to the office of a physician, where it was determined that she had apparently escaped any injuries of a serious nature.

Strothers Funeral

Military Honors Will Be Given Late Lieutenant; Funeral Friday At 2 P. M.

Pallbearers for the funeral of the late Lieutenant John H. Strothers, who died early Wednesday morning, were announced today. Representatives of the American Legion and Reserve Officers association of which the deceased was a member will take part in the funeral.

Funeral services will be conducted from the funeral parlors of the Hodge Undertaking company at the corner of Neshannock avenue and North streets at 2:30 p. m. Friday.

Those who will officiate as pallbearers will be Lieut. Sylvester J. Kramer, Rochester; Lieut. Joseph Cowan, Jr., New Castle; Maj. Louis E. Burrows, Sharon; Lieut. Lawrence C. Barnhart, Ellwood City; Capt. M. L. Craig, New Castle and Lieut. Earl Book, New Castle.

Members of the American Legion post here and the Reserve Officers association as well as the pallbearers are asked to meet at the Legion Home on North Jefferson street not later than 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The organization will go to the undertaking parlors from the home in a body.

Club Men Going To Wilksburg

King Lion E. D. Marvin, Thomas I. Elliott, Earl Book and John Ellison of the New Castle Lions club will leave this afternoon for Wilksburg where tonight they will attend a banquet of the Wilksburg club in honor of District Governor of Lions A. S. Haines of that place.

The local men will return to New Castle tonight following the banquet.

Rev. A. M. Stevenson, Evening Speaker, Gives Spirited Talk On Churches

Speaker Lauds Work Of Personal Visitation In His Address Wednesday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—The large crowds continue to pack the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church nightly to hear the different pastors of the local churches present their opinions on Christianity.

Last night's speaker was Rev. A. M. Stevenson of the First Presbyterian church. He developed his theme from a good church, not good enough. He went on to state that during the recent surveys made by the visitation workers, under the auspices of the Ministerial association, it was discovered that the people were nearly all members of some church, and that the town as a whole, was a pretty churchy community.

He also mentioned the procession of protestant ministers that have passed through the local churches since his advent seven years ago. He recalled at least 30, and he brought out the fact that not all the blame was to be laid on the church itself, describing interesting experiences of the pastors. He then went on to divide the churches into narrow, factional, etc., and in closing stressed the fact that "The thing to be striven for was the vital experience of the human heart in actual communion with the Divine."

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 28.—Miss Emma Hall of Lyleville entertained a party of friends at her home, recently. The hours being spent informally with cards and games.

Refreshments served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Henry Hall was a pleasing feature of entertainment.

High School And Mill Teams To Battle Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—On Friday evening in the high school gymnasium the first of three scheduled games between the high school basketball team and the Specialty department team, of the tube mill, will take place.

The Specialty department team is in a fair line for the mill championship trophy and should prove capable adversaries to the school five.

Two Fast Games On Shelby Floor

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—Two fast games were enjoyed by the fans Wednesday night at the Shelby club house, when the first game between the Office team and the Hot Mills five, resulted in a score of 40 to 29 in favor of the latter. The score at the end of the first half was 15-14 in favor of the Office, but during the last half the Hot Mills' crew ran away with the scoring.

The second game, that between the Specialty and Inspection, proved more interesting from the scoring point, as the tallies were close all through the game. Specialty finally won with a score of 47 to 36. The Specialty team lead the scoring all through the game, but the Inspection quint managed to keep near enough to them to keep the respective admirers of the two teams, on the edge of their seats.

Saturday night the Inspection will play the Office team and the Specialty will go into combat with the Mechanical five.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCloymonds of Second street left today for Clearwater, Florida, where they will remain until April 1.

Baking Head Suicide

Investigating authorities of Rochester, N. Y., have decided that Frederick R. Deining, heir to General Baking mills, committed suicide. His wife, Mrs. Deining, above, has said that he was despondent over business affairs.

Connoquenessing River Swells

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—A trip to the Ellwood Country club yesterday revealed the fact that the Connoquenessing river, by reason of the thawing on the streams in the district, has swelled and overflowed the roads in the vicinity of the Country club section. In one part, near the little bridge, the road is completely washed away. Large cakes of ice have been left stranded on the other side of the river road, clearly indicating the far reaching scope of the swollen waters. A flood in that section is an annual occurrence, although not as early as this usually.

The cottagers residing along the creek on the club ground can tell some harrowing tales that can be looked back upon with humor now. One matron remarked that the water rose in her cottage two inches and left six inches of mud when it receded.

Wayne Kirkpatrick of Orchard avenue has returned from a business trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

Student Fliers Are In Training

Ellwood Airport To Be Busy Place During Coming Season

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—The Ellwood City Airport from all indications will have one of the leading aviation schools in Western Pennsylvania for the training of student fliers. Today a large number have signed up for the ground and flying course, with classes starting very shortly for the ground school work which will be preliminary to the flying course.

Starting a ground work at this time will be somewhat of an advantage to the students who make up the first class, due to the fact that by the time good weather arrives, they will be ready to take actual instruction in air work.

Ground school work will consist of theory of flight air regulations, nomenclature of all airplane parts, motors, meteorology and navigation. This work will be in charge of C. Dunsmuir, former navy pilot.

Since the opening of the Ellwood City Airport last fall, six students have soloed and qualified for government licenses and in addition three men have qualified for mechanic and airplane licenses.

W. R. Wright, one of Ellwood City's leading automobile dealers has been in charge of the local airport since last fall, and much of the credit for the success of aviation in this community is due Mr. Wright.

Mrs. M. L. Moses Gives Luncheon

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—Mrs. M. L. Moses of Wayne avenue entertained at a pretty bridge-luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home. The guests were seated at five small tables, centered with pink and green flowers, the same dainty colors being prominent in the card accessories. The hostess had as her aides: Mrs. William Frazier, Mrs. J. J. McLaughlin and her mother-in-law Mrs. J. L. Moses of New Castle.

Later a series of pleasant games at bridge were enjoyed with Mrs. Floyd Frishkorn, Mrs. Howard Stewart and Mrs. Walter Hemphill emerging with high scores. Low scores at each table received a pencil favor.

The guest list comprised: Mesdames Floyd Frishkorn, James, Patterson, Theodore Markwort, Charles Markwort, C. K. Morrow, Loren Springer, Carl Davidson, George Fordyce, Geo. McMorris, William McMorris, Howard Stewart, George Richards, William Frazier, J. J. McLaughlin, Hugh Holliday, and out-of-town guests, Mrs. Walter Hemphill, Mrs. Lester Miller, Mrs. L. G. Rudisill and Mrs. Harry Marshall of New Castle.

Mrs. Fred Swanson Entertains Friends

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—Red tulips were used in effective decoration at a 1 o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. Fred Swanson Wednesday afternoon at her home on Crescent avenue. Covers were laid for 20 and Mrs. Swanson was assisted in serving by Mrs. Frank Moltz and Mrs. Harold Seidel.

The afternoon hours passed pleasantly at bridge, with score honors being won by Mrs. Jud Turner and Mrs. Myron Gelbach.

Those enjoying the event were Mesdames R. C. Stiefel, W. W. Seidel, B. F. Goodrich, H. D. Patterson, Bruce Hunter, Henry Schenck, Kathryn Hainer, Charles Ross, Reed Carpenter, Carl Hayes, George Pugh, P. E. Moore, Al Hoover, Fred Krauth, Harry Harris, Sam Johnson, Roy Hamilton, David Hamilton, Jud Turner and Myron Gelbach.

Pastor To Tell Of Trip Abroad

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 28.—Rev. William B. Smiley of Rochester will speak to the members of the Rotary club this evening on the occasion of their regular dinner-meeting in the dining room of the Presbyterian church.

He will tell of his recent travels through the Holy Lands. An added feature will be Fred Murphy, also of Rochester, who will contribute a repertoire of popular songs.

Old Sores and Ulcers Can Be Healed!

"This sincere letter," says Peterson, "gave me another happy day and as nearly every mail brings praise for Peterson's Ointment, is it any wonder that I keep cheerful all the time?"

"Dear Sirs: I had a bad leg for 20 years, tried everything but no benefit. I tried Peterson's Ointment and after 25 cent boxes healed my leg. I can never praise it enough. My leg was so painful at first that I had to put fresh ointment on every two hours, night and day. It stopped the pain at once. Mrs. Mark Richards, Lake Linden, Mich."

Resisting ointment and old sores and ulcers. Peterson's Ointment is just as good for piles, eczema, itching skin, sore feet, prickly heat, sunburn, chafing, cuts, burns, bruises, swellings and scores of other ailments as any drug-gift anywhere will tell you. A generous box 25 cents.

As a few of the smaller operators have not filed their reports, the figure will mount slightly.

The Buckeye Coal Company at New Macolin led all other operators in this county last year with a total of 170.96 acres mined. The Mather mine was second with 102.118 acres, and despite the fact that the mine was out of commission for several weeks following the disastrous explosion May 19, last, the Mather mine was able to produce more coal in 1928 than in any other year.

SEES LIFE IN THEM
For over half an hour a small boy had been persistently whistling outside the butcher's shop. Finally, the butcher could stand it no longer. He rushed out into the street. "Stop making that confounded noise, you little wretch!" he shouted. "I've lost my dog," said the boy. "Well, do you think I've got your dog, then?" "I dunno, muttered the boy. "But every time I whistle those sausages come out of your store."—Answers.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

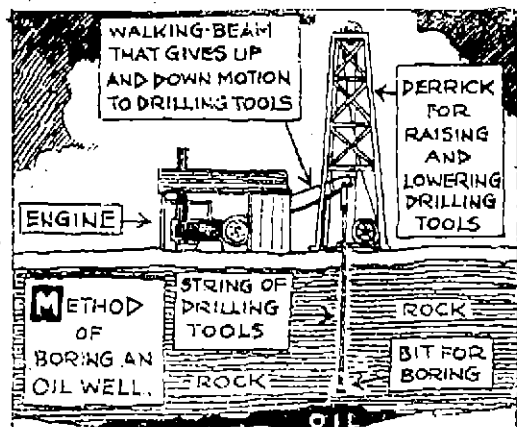

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of American Industry
Petroleum (Part Four).

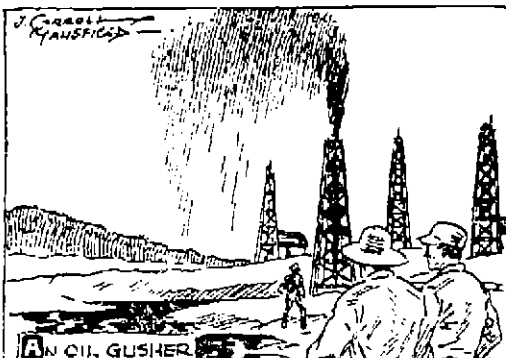

IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY, THE REFINERIES WERE SMALL AND SITUATED AT NO GREAT DISTANCE FROM THE OIL WELLS. HERE THE CRUDE OIL WAS REFINED IN IRON STILL. AT THAT TIME NAPHTHA AND GASOLINE, WHICH CAME FROM PETROLEUM, WERE NOT VALUED HIGHLY.

THE CLEAR, WHITE OIL KNOWN AS KEROSENE THEN WAS CONSIDERED THE MOST VALUABLE PRODUCT OF CRUDE OIL. BY 1865 KEROSENE WAS BEING USED EVERYWHERE FOR HOUSEHOLD LIGHTING.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY SPREAD OVER THE UNITED STATES. OIL FIELDS WERE DISCOVERED IN MANY SECTIONS OF THIS COUNTRY AND IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD. EACH NEW DISCOVERY CREATED WILD EXCITEMENT, AND BROUGHT "BOOMS" AND FRENZIED SPECULATION.

AT FIRST OPERATIONS IN OIL WERE CONDUCTED ON A SMALL SCALE BY COUNTLESS LITTLE COMPANIES. IN 1870 JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER AND SOME OIL MEN IN CLEVELAND ORGANIZED THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY. THIS ORGANIZATION GREW SO EFFICIENT AND POWERFUL THAT IN TIME IT ELIMINATED MOST OF ITS COMPETITORS, AND CAME TO DOMINATE THE AMERICAN OIL INDUSTRY.

TOMORROW—PRODUCTION OF OIL AND NATURAL GAS.

Paralyzed, But Leads Checker Tournament

Unable to move either his legs or arms, and showing the checkers over the board by means of a stick which he holds between his teeth, Ed Otto is leading the city checker championship tournament which is being played off each Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. lobby.

Otto, a total cripple, paralyzed to the extent that he is practically helpless, plays consistently with his rubber ended stick, showing the checkers here and there with his stick between his teeth.

He leads the tournament of some 10 players and has a six-point lead on Clark, second in the race. The points stand 32 and 26 with the other players following.

Each Saturday evening some of the checkerists go to Otto's home on East Washington street, carry him to a waiting automobile, bring him to the Y and the tournament goes on.

New Kensington Home Is Bombed, No One Injured

Police At New Kensington Start Investigation Into Revenge Bombing Act

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Feb. 28.—A bomb explosion which partially wrecked the home of William Adams here early today, jarred sleepers from their beds within a radius of more than a block, but caused no injury to Mrs. Adams and her two children who were in the house at the time. The damage is estimated at $500.

Police and firemen were unable to find any trace of the bomb, which was believed to have been made with gunpowder. From the force of the blast, the bomb had evidently been placed under the house, police declare.

Adams told police that he had received threats of violence from unknown sources three times in the past two weeks. It was first believed that leading gas had caused the explosion, but firemen were unable to find any trace of escaping gas, and after Adams related the story concerning threats he had received, officials held to the theory of a bomb.

Windows in nearly a score of dwellings surrounding the Adams home were shattered.

A San Francisco woman, playing poker the other evening held three royal flushes within forty-five minutes. If that had happened in Washington it would have warranted a Senate investigation.

Cuba Is Stirred By Alleged Plot

Allege Plot Existed To Shoot President And Overthrow Government

HAVANA, Feb. 28.—All Cuba today was stirred by the revelation of an alleged plot to assassinate President Gerardo Machado and throw the entire island into a state of revolt.

The police indicated that leaders of several minority parties were involved. It was further reported that the police had discovered a document in which the conspirators asked for intervention by the United States on the ground that Cuba was improperly governed.

The plot was first revealed when orders were issued for the arrest of Rafael Izaurde, former secretary of the Interior, and a number of others. Later eight prominent members of the Nationalist, Communist and anti-Imperialistic parties were placed under arrest. The warrants issued charged conspiracy to assassinate the president and incite revolt.

Stubborn Cough Quickly Ended by Famous Recipe

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that usually follow the "flu."

From any drugist, get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never fails and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm in the chest, soothes in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Mrs. Cunningham is able to be home after being in a Pittsburgh hospital for treatment for a bone which became lodged in her throat.

An interesting program was presented by the pupils of room 2 of the Enon Valley school Friday afternoon. The program was in observance of Washington's birthday.

Mrs. Anna Marshall pleasantly entertained the members of her junior Sunday school class at her home Saturday evening. Games and music were enjoyed by the girls. At the conclusion a delicious lunch was served.

Enon Valley and the surrounding district witnessed the heaviest flood in many years Tuesday morning. The old Enon district being the worse. Cellars were flooded, roads washed so badly and the water was so high that traffic was shut off. Little Beaver school was closed for the day. The school buses were unable to get through the water. By evening the creeks lowered and traffic was again resumed.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Amelia Inboden, daughter of Mrs. Michael Inboden of East End, Pittsburgh, and William Ellwood Balliet of Baltimore, Md., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Balliet of Milton, Pa. The marriage was solemnized Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the Cavalry Episcopal church of Pittsburgh with the Rev. E. J. Van Btten officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother M. Wesley Inboden, her attendant being her youngest sister Miss Dorothy Inboden. The best man was Harold Briggs of Pittsburgh and the ushers were Edward D. Chapin of Milton and Charles E. Vogel of Jeannette Pa. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast at the Rittenhouse was served. Following the breakfast the couple left for an eastern wedding trip and upon their return will be at home in Baltimore.

The Way OF THE World

DEAD ENOUGH

Now a lizard, believed to have been imprisoned for centuries, is found in a crevice in the rocks. The story is even better than that of the toad sealed for 31 years in a corner stone. The lizard shows signs of life, as did the toad. In an English musical review, shown in New York one of the principals says: "My uncle sits in House of Lords."

"But," says the other, "your uncle is dead."

"I know it, but they let him sit there."

Plenty more to be found sitting around, just like that. They are dead but have not been officially notified. We are just about as much alive as we determine to be. One has to work at being alive. It is perhaps more comfortable not to be alive — certainly on occasions. A brilliant preacher, Dr. George Laughton, preached a sermon on this topic: "How to be Happy Though Alive." It may not be easy, but it is worth trying.

PLANNING CITIES

In a few generations ago small towns had planned cities. If councilmen and civic leaders had had vision, there would not be such a hopeless traffic mess in some of our large towns and cities. Today street widening is the chief civic concern. Sidewalks are made too narrow to add a few feet to the roadway. In some streets it is impossible to cut back or remove buildings. It is a well-nigh hopeless situation because of the lack of vision a few years ago. Small towns should act before it is too late. Growth comes dangerously fast to modern cities.

FOR FRESH AIR ENTHUSIASTS

We live much according to theories and traditions that have come down through the years. They may have little basis in fact or common sense. There are people who sleep with their windows wide open in cold weather. They do not enjoy the cold. They suffer much but they labor under the delusion that they are building up their health. Our grandfathers, most of them far stronger, harder, healthier than we are, slept with the windows down. They sunk themselves in feather beds and cared little about air. Says Dr. J. Frederick Hempel, of Baltimore:

"Recent scientific investigations throw interesting sidelights on the ventilation of sleeping rooms and tend to modify to an important degree previous opinions and practice. To begin with, common sense tells us that physical comfort should be taken into consideration. If you sleep better with the window wide open and the chilling drafts are pleasant rather than disagreeable, open your window wide, but do not throw it wide open in cold and inclement weather and retire with chattering teeth and sleep in general discomfort under the mistaken idea that it is healthful."

Mother Of Enon Valley Man Dead At 90

JACKSONVILLE, Pa., Feb. 28. — Mrs. Margaret Studebaker, 90, died yesterday at her home near Jacksonville, Worth township, Butler county. She was the widow of David Studebaker. She was a native of PProspect and had spent all her life in Butler county. The following sons and daughters survive: J. W. at home and I. J. Studebaker, Enon Valley; Mrs. W. W. Graham, Butler; Mrs. J. C. Hindman, Meadville; and Mrs. G. E. Ogilvie, Tulsa, Okla. Funeral services will be held from the home at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon and burial will be in Plain Grove cemetery.

Murderers Fail To Win Commutation

HARRISBURG, Feb. 28.—Pleas for mercy failed to win a commutation of the death sentence from the state pardon board for three Negro murderers of Erie county.
The three condemned men, convicted of the slaying of Pellegrino Cocco, a storekeeper during a robbery, are James and Raymond Parker and John H. Wilson. A fourth member of the band, Joseph E. Ware, escaped with life imprisonment. The time for the execution of the three condemned men has been fixed for next Monday.

HAVANA TAXICAB DRIVERS PIN FAITH ON SAINTS

(International News Service)
HAVANA, Feb. 28.—Omnibus drivers who operate between Havana and outlying towns are notorious for their disregard of all rules of safety and caution. At the same time there are remarkably few accidents. Many of the drivers carry a picture of their favorite saint and a printed sign hanging above the steering wheel which reads: "Dios bendiga este carro", which translated means "God bless this automobile."
On the saint and the quotation the driver pins his luck and bears down on the throttle for all the motor will stand.

THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION LATER

When You Pay a Bill by Check, the Cancelled
Voucher is Legal Proof of Payment

HERE'S no fuss or argument about disputed payments, for everything's down on paper where it belongs. The written record is quickly available and settles the question forever. Proof of payment is only one of many direct advantages of checking service.

Your money is handled without risk when you pay by check. A few minutes at your desk replaces the hours of running about and waiting if you paid in cash. Think what this one phase of the service means to you.

Men of affairs pay by check and you take your rightful place among them when you use your bank's full service. Your bank connection gives you added prestige, and it brings you and your banker into friendly contact. He can help you in matters of finance, business or personal, and will welcome the opportunity.

A checking account visualizes your expenses. You can see where every penny goes and control expenditures more easily. Your payments can be for the exact amount. No chance for errors in change.

The greatest benefits to you are realized when you keep an adequate reserve regularly on deposit. Then you have money, instantly ready for every opportunity to profit, ready to protect you in emergency.

Other Benefits

Your surplus funds go to help carry on the industries, public utilities, building construction and retail institutions. As they prosper, the community prospers and your own money pays you another profit.

An adequate balance serves you directly in several ways, and again through community prosperity. Build your checking reserve so that you may receive the full earning power of your money.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.
Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

The ladies of the E. N. C. club, came to Gardner last Thursday bringing a shower in honor of Mrs. T. J. Shaffer, who so recently moved into her new home. The party was in the nature of a housewarming, each guest bringing an appropriate gift. A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock. Those present were Mrs. Lee Smith of East Washington street extension, Mrs. Joseph Stewart of New Castle, and the following from East New Castle: Mrs. Ed. Dean, Mrs. Lee Whitaker, Mrs. Lyle Christy, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. John Kalajainen, Mrs. Charlie Wilkison, Mrs. Mary Strayer, of New Castle was a special guest, and the honor guest, Mrs. T. J. Shaffer, of Gardner. It was a very pleasant occasion for all who were present.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stickle of the Pulaski road visited their niece Mrs. Shaffer and family at Gardner.

(International News Service)
TOKYO, Feb. 28.—A solar eclipse will be visible in Japan of May 9 next, unless astronomical calculations are awry, and although it will not be total at any point in the Empire, Japanese scientists are preparing to make observations. It is reported that four astronomers from the Tokyo and Kyoto observatories will be sent to the Malay Archipelago, the only est point from which to view the phenomenon, to make observations. The eclipse will be remarkable because of the unusual length of time during the sun's disc will be entirely covered. The period of totality as covered from Malaya will be five minutes, where as in the average eclipse it is less than two minutes.

Frisco Grande Is Brannigan "2d"

Has Met Several Champs Since Entering The Ring

BRANNIGAN TO SHOW HIS PROTEGE HERE

By ED. FRITZ
Frisco Grande, Filipino flyweight, is the Patsy Brannigan of his division and is so described as he, like Brannigan, has fought more champions than any boy in his division. When Patsy romped as a bantamweight he was wont to mingle with only those of the first water, and a perusal of Grande's record puts him in Brannigan's class.

Brannigan fought Jimmy Walsh, Johnny Coulon, Kid Williams, bantamweights, and also mingled with Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight king. Grande has boxed World's Champion Izzy Schwartz, Frankie Genaro, Frenchy Belanger, Ernie Jarvis, et al.

This Genaro person, called the national boxing association champion, outpointed the Filipino, Frisco took one of three fights with Schwartz, won from Belanger, the French-Canadian champion, and outpointed Jarvis, holder of the British flyweight crown.

Expect Overflow Crowd
He battles Willie Davies, the marvelous boxer of Charleroi, at the Jolly Bowl Monday night and it looks as though the "Filipino kwepple doll" and Davies will be one of the biggest crowds of the season.

Davies hasn't milled here in several months and the fans have been aching to see the boy who fought Johnny McCoy. They still remember that exasperated by the slippery soles of his shoes, he removed them and fought in his bare feet.

McCoy, according to the story the writer has been told (though we cannot vouch for its authenticity) was overweight and had an edge to begin with, but Davies eluded all his "right hands" until the last, when he was sent staggering.

Willie flew into the ropes and almost came down, but his instinctive fighting caused him to fly up in defense, and within a few seconds he was his old self and at the bell was battling like the great little fighter he is.

Likes to Battle
Frisco Grande is a good boxer, tough as hickory and a punishing puncher. According to those conversant with his record, there is one thing certain and that is—when flyweights fight the fans see action, and that is what we all want to see.

And we should, not only in the main tilt, but the semi-final, as Chet Smallwood, the aggressive southpaw of Terre Haute, and Eddie Rutman of Akron, 133, clash. Both have appeared here and tossed thousands of punches and pleased fans.
Tom O'Leary, the rugged bantam from the coal mines of Wilkes-Barre, will tackle Ki Goldman, Jewish bantamweight, of Akron in another six-round battle. Goldman is rated better than O'Leary, but Tom hopes to show the fans that he is better than Goldman.

Action in Preliminaries
Just to provide some punching, Jimmy Malone, stablemate of Nick Polts, will tackle Johnny Russell, Fayette City, stablemate of Willie Davies. They have signed to box four rounds at 158 pounds.

Patsy Brannigan, who developed Jackie Rodgers, the flashy boxer of Pittsburgh, will bring Al Farone, one of his new proteges, to meet Johnny Jennings of the South Side.

Farone will be making his first appearance. Brannigan claims he is a tough fighter to beat in the gymnasium and has asked for a chance to show here, and Patsy has been given the chance to show him against Jennings, who has scored two knockouts.

On account of the popularity of the boxers on the card for Monday night the advance sale has already started. Remembering that the boxing commission forced a closing of the doors at the last show, fans are securing their "ducati" now.

Remember This Fight?

REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE NEW CHAMP

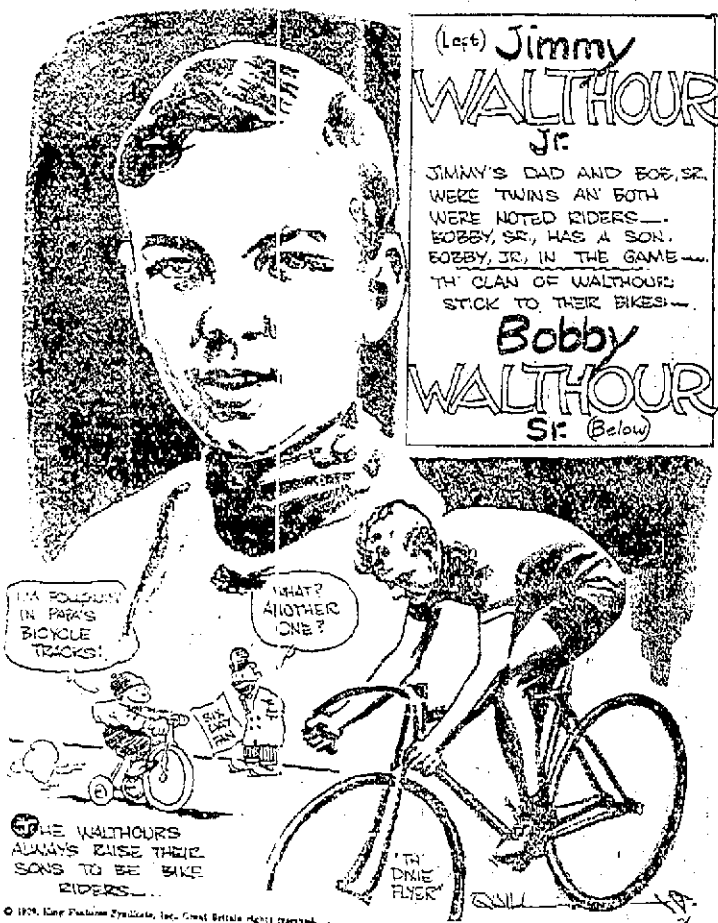

The unusual spectacle of a synthetic champion losing a decision in 12 rounds to an unknown fighter and then having the general public ridicule the claims of the winner followed the Jimmy Jones-Dave Shade scrap that was held in an outdoor arena at Boston July 27, 1923.

Prior to the bout Shade was advertised as the champion owing to the action of the New York commission in revoking Mickey Walker's crown for his refusal to meet Shade.

Shade in his first attempt to defend his honors took on the unknown Jones, an obscure Ohio scrapper. To the amazement of the customers the boy from the west gave the highly touted Shade a thorough shellacking for the 12 rounds. He threw gloves into Shade until the so-called champion was frantic. Jones was ahead from the start and won hands down.

But did the public recognize his championship claims? Not a chance. Jones was ridiculed to such an extent that the New York body finally decided to again recognize Mickey Walker.

Like Father

By QUIN HALL
With another one of those six-day bicycle grinds due to get under way shortly at Madison Square Garden in New York, the interest of the sportsmanlike who follow the sport is bound to be centered around the lams and jammers of the wooden saucer.

Fellows of the old school, like Raygie McNamara and Maurice Brocco, are rapidly fading from the public eye and with the passing of that school of pedalers it is doubtful if future races of this sort will ever beat the records for distance established by the old-timers in the game. Distance marks used to be the things the old veterans shot at, but now with the modernistic youngsters straddling the bikes it seems that a new mark for lap stealing is the "cream in the Java" as the saying goes.

Among the newcomers who already are making bike history is young Jimmy Walthour. In fact the name Walthour seems to hold a certain magic in the cycling world. For a good many years there has been a Walthour among the outstanding riders in the country, and from present appearances it seems that the clan will be well represented for a long time to come.

Last year Jimmy decided to turn professional instead of making the trip to Amsterdam as a member of your Uncle Sam's Olympic team and, hearing the news, the cycling fans danced in the streets and tossed their hats in the air. Rival pros were gleeful over the announcement and planned to show him up as an unfinished rider—the young upstart! Jimmy surely stepped into a bed of hot coals. Going to Chicago for his start he was paired with a young German, Franz Duellberg. The veterans poked the youthful team and did everything in their power to make Walthour's debut in their racket a well-brambled path of thorns. He looked for little help from his German partner, but they kept at it and all at once they were out front in the clear and stayed there for the balance of the race. That was Jimmy's introduction to the pro ranks and he has been doing rather well in the business since the triumph he shared in Chicago with Duellberg.

Jimmy's father before him was quite some shakes in the cycling world, but he did not stick to the racket long enough to achieve the fame of his brother, Bobby, senior. The older Bobby was one of the most versatile pedalers who ever lashed his brogan onto a stirrup. He could follow the motors in the summer time, win match races and then go inside and rule the six-day roost. Bobby Sr. is still riding in the South and for 30 years he has been known as the "Dixie Flyer" with good cause. Old-time bugs recall that he won the six-day yawn at the old Garden in New York in 1901, paired with Mc-

Eacher, and two years later repeated with Monroe as his riding mate.

Bobby Jr. and Jimmy Jr. are cousins and their dads were twins. Bobby Jr. lacks his father's versatility and found, after a trial, that he was not successful behind the motors. Young Bobby made his professional debut in 1921. Since then he has figured as one of the winners of the six-day crowd six times and has always made a good showing on the inside oval. He was amateur champion of America in 1921 and three times New England champion. He has a son, Bobby III, and hopes that some day this youngster will be able to take over the Walthour banner when the present members of the clan are through.

As long as bicycle racing is being done it seems as if it would be a big task to keep the name of Walthour out of the public prints.

TRAINING CAMP 'BUNTS'

Baseball Teams In 'Big Show' Prepare For Season

Walters Holding Out.

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 28.—The first regular batting practice was on tap today for Pittsburgh Pirates in training here. Manager Donie Bush has decided to give the boys a week's time to get their batting eyes working before pitting the regulars against the Yankees. The first game has been scheduled for next Thursday.

The remainder of the Pirates players, with the exception of the Walter Brothers, are due in camp today.

French Signs Contract.
With Pitcher Larry French handing in his contract yesterday, Paul and Lloyd Warner are the only holdouts of importance. From a statement made by Sam Dreyfuss, treasurer of the Pirates, it is believed that mail negotiations with the two stars has come to an end. In the meantime Manager Bush is trying out Comorosky, Brickell, Grantham, Frey and Martin in the outfield positions.

Two Sessions Daily.
FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 28.—The two day practice sessions of the Athletics will be resumed tomorrow upon the return of the players who attended the Sharkey-Strubling fight. During the workout of the rookies in the absence of the stars "Kid" Gleason, veteran coach, believes he has discovered the pitching find of the season in Bill Breckenridge, of Oklahoma, who formerly pitched for Dartmouth college.

Misfortune Hits Carl.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 28.—Misfortune continues to dog Carl Mays the blonde submarine hurler who is attempting a comeback with the New York Giants after having been crippled by neuritis for two years. A sharp liner from Dutch Henry's bat broke a bone in the pitcher's left thumb in batting practice yesterday. He will be unable to field or bat for a month, but can continue to practice pitching.

May Trade Gooch.
CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 28.—The Brooklyn training camp today was buzzing with reports that Johnny Gooch, catcher, may be traded to the Boston Braves for an infielder.

Hank Dewberry, Dazzy Vance's private backstop, is the latest camp arrival and outfielder Babe Herman, an alleged holdout, has signed.

"Sold" On Lary.
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28.—Manager Miller Kuyte, usually chary in praise of rookies, is "sold" on Lary Lary. In lauding the fielding and throwing of the $125,000 recruit from Oakland, Cal., he announced yesterday that Lary would start the season for the Yankees at shortstop.

Franklin Teams Win Two Floor Contests

Boys Defeat Union Boys 22-5; Girls Easily Trim Union Lassies 18-2

(By CHARLES LANDOLF)

Ben Franklin Junior High school varsity basketball team easily defeated the small Union High school team 22-5 in a regular Junior High school league game Wednesday afternoon on the Union gym. In the preliminary game the girls from Franklin also easily trimmed the Union lassies 18-2 in a league game.

By virtue of their wins both teams from Franklin are practically sure of the Junior High Floor League titles. Both teams are yet to be defeated.

In the boys' game the Franklinites proved to good for their smaller opponents and scored at will. At the half Franklin lead 14 to 0. Abraham, Watson, and Fabian were the big guns during this half. Franklin's defense was airtight and as a result the Unionites fail to cage a bucket during this half.

The second half proved very slow with many of the second string players seeing lots of action. The third quarter ended with Franklin on top 20-2. The Union boys found the defense to much for them and failed to cage a two pointer. The fourth quarter was very slow with Franklin scoring but two points to 3 for the Unionites. The whistle that ended the game blew with the league leaders on top 22-5.

The girls' game proved a repetition to the boys game with the Franklin lassies too much for their less experienced Union maidens who were held scoreless for two quarters. This was due to the air tight defense of the Franklinites. Franklin lead at the half 9-0.

In the boys game the playing of Fabian, Watson, and Abraham, featured for the winners while Lattimer was the best for the Union team. In the girls game the playing of Kraft, Ciccone, and Genock featured while Donley was the best for the Unionites.

The summaries for both games:
Boys' Game

Bowling Champs To Meet Friday

First M. E. And Mahoning Bowlers Will Start Church Champ Games

The First M. E. bowlers and the Mahoning M. E. men will start their series of nine championship play off games in the church bowling league Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. alleys at 7:30 o'clock.

There is no edge to the games, three of which will be played for three evenings within the next week. The First M. E.'s have lost Earl Fraser from the lineup and last Earl was their main stand.

The Mahoning men have been practicing and the two squads of men are about evenly matched. Total pins will decide the winners of the nine games.

The need of the play off came when the league closed a week ago and it was found that these two were tied for first honors. The series of nine games was arranged in order that the winning team might be decided.

There were eight teams in the league this year and the games were all close. The Croton M. E. team was just a game behind the Mahoning bowlers who were shoved into first place by virtue of the First Mahoning defeating the First M. E.'s in the final game of the league.

For the Mahoning church, Solomon, Gibson, Davies, Clark and Hamilton will undoubtedly be the lineup for the church team. The First M. E. outfit will probably find Baker, Brooks, Shafter, Ruby and Harker listed.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Furnished by Kay, Richards & Co., 234 State Street & Trust Building

International News Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Responding to the overnight jump in copper metal prices to 19 1/2 cents a pound for export and 19 cents in the home market, copper stocks pushed forward buoyantly to the highest prices on record just before noon today. At 143, Anaconda was within 7 points of the 150 goal set for this stock by the ardent bulls in the latter part of 1928. Ardent, inspiration and other active stocks in this group were at their best behavior and added 1 to 2 1/2 points to market values.

All of the "trading favorites" were boosted to higher price levels as the victorious bulls rode rough-shod over the bears and brought in the largest amount of outside buying since the Reserve boards famous "warning" was issued. Wall Street looks for no increase in the bank rate today. Though there is quite likely to be a big expansion in the total of brokers' loans.

In the steel stocks and an active market Bethlehem moved up to 101 1/2, the highest price on record. Republic moved up to 91 and Steel Foundries was again in demand above 71.

American Can made a new advance to 120 1/2. Johns Manville and Allied Chemical were active and strong. The electrical manufacturing stocks paralleled the upward move up the coppers. Westinghouse jumped about 3 points to 158 1/2 and General Electric topped 245 for a 3-point gain. Stocks of the chemical companies were held back by profit-taking in the second hour, but the oil stocks managed to push themselves into higher position on the prospect of a big falling off in drilling for crude oil.

The money market was in good condition and the renewal rate stood at 8 per cent.

Copper Stocks Market Feature

Reserve Board Is Keeping Eye on Stock Market Now

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—There was enough momentum left over from yesterday's brilliant advance to carry prices of the market favorites to higher price levels during early afternoon today. The coppers earned a bigger place in the lime-light when copper metal soared to 19 1/2 cents a pound, and two of the important copper producers, Greene Cananea and Inspiration, boosted their cash dividend rates.

The bullish fever did not extend to every section of the market. The Reserve board is keeping its weather eye on the stock market and is believed to be in the frame of mind to "take measures" against the banks which continued loaning for speculative uses. If a big increase is shown in brokers' loans this week, which seems likely, the Reserve discount rates may go up from the present (high) rate of 5 per cent.

The banks called in loans today for the March interest and dividend payments and the rate went up to 10 per cent.

U. S. Steel hovered around 185 most of the day. Bethlehem, Republic, Steel Industries and Youngstown featured a strong market in the independent steels, and sold at the highest prices in more than a year.

The 10 per cent. money rate in the third hour brought out the usual quota of short selling and the market leaders were pushed back from the peaks of the forenoon. Radio declined 12 points to 383, the new stock losing 2 points. High-priced specialty stocks received a few points but on the whole the active stocks fell into such firm buying support that losses were comparatively small.

County Millage Raised For 1929 Owing To Jump In Poor District Cost

County commissioners this morning fixed the county tax millage for the ensuing year at 6 1/2 mills and the poor tax at 2 1/2 mills, or a total of 9 mills. Millage for county purposes is the same as last year, but there is an increase of 1 1/2 mills in the poor tax, the levy last year having been one mill.

Millage is set on a total valuation for county purposes of around $70,000,000. This would give $455,000 for county purposes, and $175,000 for the poor district, or a total of $630,000.

Commissioners say that the increase in the poor tax has been made necessary by the large number of calls that have been made upon them for help during the past winter. In many cases the calls are from widows with families to support. But there are numerous other cases where it is claimed that the head of the family is out of work.

Cost of maintaining the inmates at the county home is but a small part of the expense. It has been in the home relief department that a large part of the money has been spent. While an investigation has been made of the different cases, the commissioners are now considering re-investigations with a view to cutting down the expense wherever possible. This has been made necessary for the reason that the county does not have the money to meet all the demands that have been made for aid.

As spring approaches it is figured that there will be less to pay in coal bills and that more people will be able to secure work. It is also planned to keep a closer check on the items for which money is expended by those receiving aid. Attention has been called to instances in which there does not appear to have been much economy on the part of those receiving help.

County commissioners are in a hard situation when it comes to handling the poor district. They want to help those who are really needing help and are deserving; at the same time they are compelled to guard against a class who make little or no effort to help themselves, as long as they can get help from the county.

Before the county was formed into a poor district, the city, boroughs and townships looked after their own needy ones. Since the poor district was formed, the applications for help have increased many fold as compared to the applications under the old system. It is this big increase that has made it necessary to raise the poor millage. Even with the millage set at 2 1/2 mills, it will be necessary for the county to exercise the greatest care and economy in the expenditure of funds if they are to meet the expenses for the current year.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Create Sourness, Gas and Pain. How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food ferments, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try taking aside all digestive aids and instead get from any drug store some liquid acid and take a teaspoonful of powder or four tablets in water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Mag-nessia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Wallace Avenue Home Is Damaged

$500 Loss Sustained In Blaze At Davis Home Late This Morning

Fire of undetermined origin, discovered in a clothes press at the home of James C. Davis of 217 E. Wallace avenue, did damage amounting to close to $500 shortly before eleven o'clock this morning.

The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Davis, who called the Second Ward department. Chief Lynn and the auxiliary truck also answered. When they arrived on the scene, they found a brisk blaze in progress. They were able to confine the fire to the immediate vicinity of the clothes press, which was located on the first floor of the home. The damage to the home will amount to about $150, while the damage to the contents of the closet, will be about $350.

Herbert Hoover Completes Work On His Cabinet

Announced At Hoover Headquarters Today That Cabinet Is Entirely Selected.

WILL BE MADE PUBLIC MONDAY

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Herbert Hoover has completed his cabinet, it was announced today at his headquarters here.

Offers have been made and accepted for all the ten posts, it was said. The personnel, however, will not be announced until Monday afternoon when the names are sent to the senate for confirmation.

One of the president-elect's spokesmen said there would be "two surprises" in the cabinet slate when announced, that is, it would contain the names of two men whose names have not figured prominently in the nearly four months of cabinet speculation.

There was little indication of what posts are involved in the "surprises," but the assumption was that they were commerce and agriculture portfolios. A good many names have been suggested for both positions.

Davis May Remain

It developed today that Secretary of Labor James J. Davis is likely to remain in the cabinet, at least for the time being.

Davis was approached some days ago by an emissary of the president-elect to inquire if he would be available for continued duty should his services be required. Davis replied that he would. At that time it appeared that Wm. N. Doak, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, was in line for the post, but later labor organization jealousies developed to such an extent that the matter had to be reconsidered.

Among Mr. Hoover's callers today were Sam Thompson, head of the American Farm Bureau federation, and Chester Gray, its Washington representative. They said they presented no candidate for the secretaryship of agriculture.

Other callers were Jay Weston Allen of Massachusetts; Senator Hale (R) of Maine; and the air secretaries of the war and commerce departments, F. Trubee Davison and Wm. P. McCracken. Davison will continue in his post in the Hoover administration, it was said, but McCracken probably will resign and become identified with an aviation concern.

Man Captured By Posse Of Police Near Hartford, O.

(International News Service)

SHARON, Pa., Feb. 28.—Tracked through the snow for more than seven miles, Rue Dalrymple, 32 of Erie who early this morning fired three shots at Patrolman Joseph Wright of the local police force, was captured near Hartford, O., by a posse of nine Sharon policemen and several Trumbull county officers.

Dalrymple admitted to police that he had stolen an automobile in Erie on Tuesday evening and that he and another man had robbed a confectionery store there. The two men on their way to Warren, O., in the stolen auto were forced to walk three miles to Sharon when their machine broke down.

Their actions led to an investigation by police and Dalrymple was placed under arrest by Wright. He pulled a revolver and fled as he fired at the officer. The other man escaped.

Stinson-Page Are Seeking Record For Endurance

Fliers Takeoff Today From Saginaw Bay, Mich., For Endurance Test

(International News Service)

BAY CITY, Mich., Feb. 28.—In an attempt to shatter the world's endurance record for sustained flying Edward L. Stinson, pilot and Randolph G. Page, mechanic, hopped off from the ice of Saginaw Bay in their specially constructed Stinson-Detroit monoplane "Sally Sovereign" at 10:42 a. m. today.

It was a perfect take-off skimming over the smooth ice and going into the air just in time to jump over an ice floe which raised about ten feet into the air.

Chicken Thieves Tracked In Snow

Trio Traveled Over Half Mile To Home Of One Of Gang This Morning

Three young men, Harry Anderson, Eugene Sullivan and Earl Ward, are being held at the police station, after having been caught by Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch, about nine o'clock this morning in the Anderson home on Sennett street. In the act of cooking some of the chickens, they are alleged to have stolen early this morning from the coop of Charles Morse, 535 Sampson street.

Mr. Morse claims that five of his fine Rhode Island Red chickens were taken. The young men, according to the police, admit taking three, two they had on cooking in a kettle on the stove and a third, which had been dressed but was not being cooked.

The officers were enabled to make their capture through the fall of snow last night. Taking up the trail at the coop, they went over nearly a half mile of territory, until it led them to the Anderson home, where the chickens were found.

Just what charge will be made has not yet been determined by the police.

The investigation is being continued because of the fact that there have been a number of similar thefts in the district in recent weeks, also some petty thieving. The investigation is being made for the purpose of determining whether or not these young men may be implicated.

They have admitted to nothing beyond the theft of three chickens from the Morse coop.

Begin Repairs At Campbell Home

Workmen started this morning on the task of repairing the home of Prothonotary Ralph M. Campbell, which was badly damaged by fire early Saturday morning of last week. It was found necessary to tear away practically half of the roof. It will also take considerable effort to repair the interior of the home, which was badly burned in spots.

Miss Elizabeth Long of North Jefferson street is confined to her home with illness.

The picture shows you in diagram form one of the millions of dirt pockets formed in rugs by the innumerable yarn strands of which floor coverings are made.

Beating is necessary to vibrate the dirt in these pockets to the surface so that it can be suctioned away.
